#68.13

This is a genealogy of the descendants of CHRISTIAN MUSSELMAN and BARBARA JUDD MUSSELMAN. Christian was a son of John and Maria/Mary Holtaman Musselman. Christian was born 8/14/1788 and died in 1856. Barbara was a daughter of Pierson and Barbara Heistand Judd and she was born 8/19/1799 and died in 1850. Christian Musselman and Barbara Judd were married in Shenandoah Co, VA. 1/13/1818; and they lived in the portion of Shenandoah Co. which became Page Co. in 1831. Christian and Barbara had eight children: Sarah, John, Clarinda, Lorenzo, Martin, Isaac, Daniel, and Emily. Barbara is buried in the cemetery near Antioch Church in Page Co., VA; and Christian is interred in Missouri.

John Musselman was born 2/14/1743; his will was proved 5/23/1826. On 5/27/1767 he married Maria Holtaman who was born 2/17/1751 and died in 1830 or 1831.

#272

John Musselman's ancestry is believed to have evolved thus:- A CHRISTIAN MUSSELMAN who was born ca 1668 and died in 1734 in PA had six children: HENRY, FRENA, EVA, DAVID, 136 MICHAEL, and PETER. One of these six, David #136 (who died ca 1766) and his wife, Maria had four sons: HENRY, DAVID, CHRISTIAN, and JOHN. John is the only one of the four sons who migrated from Lancaster Co., PA., to the Shenandoah Valley of VA. John and Maria Holtaman Musselman acquired property in Shenandoah Co. and remained there. They were listed in the 1782 census in Shenandoah Co. with nine children.

The John Musselman family spoke the German language. Elva Musselman Foltz of Luray, VA. owns their original family Bible which is printed in German. The Musselman families came mostly from the Bern, Switzerland area in Europe and went to the German Palatinate Alsace-Lorraine areas, along with many other Mennonite families making similar migrations for religious reasons and in search of farmable lands. Many came from there to Pennsylvania for the same reasons. Most of the Musselmans arriving at the port of Philadelphia went to Lancaster and Bucks Counties in Pennsylvania.

In researching early records of Shenandoah and Page Counties I found a variety of spellings of the Musselman name:- MUSSELMAN, MUSSLEMAN, MURSELMAN, MURSLEMAN, MUZZELMAN, MUSSULMAN, MUSELMAN.

Christian Musselman was the 13th of the following 16 children born to John and Maria Holtaman Musselman:-

I estimated the ages of Christian Musselman's children in this manner. Henry Musselman had 200 acres surveyed in Lancaster Co. (then part of Chester County) in 1718, so he must have been born ca 1693.

Frena Musselman, who married Abraham Herr, had two children Samuel and David Herr before her husband died in 1725.? She must have been born ca 1700.

Eva Musselman married Philip Nult. There was a will for Philip Nult in 1749, which was not proved. He did not name his wife in the will, so perhaps she was already deceased at that time. In Lancaster Co. Deed, E-316, dated 10 Mar. 1755, recorded 1759, the children of Philip Nultz, deceased, release to eldest son, Jonas. Philip Nultz died leaving 2 sons, 4 daughters, namely: Jonas, John, Anna wife of Christian Shank, Catherina wife of George Neisly, Fronia wife of Frederick Mummer, and Maria, minor now deceased. John also dead without issue. It would seem that the oldest child must have been born by 1725 or before, so I placed Eva's birth ca 1705.

David Musselman was of age in 1734. Hemay already have been in possession of the plantation which his father gave him, and probably already married, so I placed his birth ca 1710.

Michael Musselman was probably the youngest child since he received money instead of land. From a Bible record, we know that Michael's oldest child was born in 1737, so I placed his date of birth ca. 1712.

Christian Musselman did not name his son Henry in his Will. Henry had evidently already received his inheritance. Information for Christian's family from deed M-3-542. 1800, Abraham Herr to Henry Kauffman. This deed traces the land back to the original patent from Emily Dennis Phelan-Spt. 1987

Christian Musselman, deceased in 1754, did not name his son, Henry, in his will; but his daughters by name. They are named in Lancaster County Deed [illegible], [illegible] - Abraham Kerr to Henry Kaufman. This land [illegible] traces the land back to the original patent.

On the 20 November 1717, William Penn, through his Commissioners, granted a patent to Abraham Herr for 500 acres plus allowance for roads, in Lancaster Township.

Abraham Herr died intestate (1735), leaving these eight children: Abraham, his eldest son; Anna; Christian; John; Barbara, the wife of David Martin; Elizabeth, the wife of [illegible]; Samuel Herr; and David Herr. ([illegible])

In 1736, the other heirs granted 295 acres to Abraham Herr, the eldest son. This Abraham Herr and wife Anna, on the [illegible] 1754, granted 245 acres (part of the 295 acres) to [illegible] and [illegible] Kerr, the grantor in the present deed.

Abraham Herr and wife Anna had previously, on the 4 Apr. 1746, granted 50 acres to Peter Musselman, part of the 295 acres. Peter Musselman also bought 50 acres from Ludwick Stone on 11 [illegible] 1750.

Peter Musselman died without issue. His heirs were David Musselman and Samuel Musselman, brothers of Peter; Henry Musselman, Christian Musselman, Peter Musselman and Mary Musselman (the children of Henry Musselman, deceased, who was another brother of Peter); (Samuel Kerr, David Kerr, Christian Kaufman and Barbara his wife, John [illegible] and Elizabeth his wife - these being the children of Anna, one of the sisters of Peter Musselman); [illegible] and [illegible] (late Anna [illegible]), and Frederick [illegible] and [illegible] his wife (late [illegible]), these being the children of [illegible]) another sister of Peter Musselman.

In [illegible], the heirs of Peter Musselman sold his land to [illegible]. By [illegible] conveyances, the said land was conveyed [illegible], to [illegible] Henry, the grantor of the present deed.

This research was done by Emily Phelan and these notes are made by her. Administration granted to Maria Musselman & Henry Musselman. Deed U-134, 1773-David Musselman died intestate, left two children, Christian and David. Christian is selling his share to David.

Henry Musselman may be the father of Henry Musselman, b-1762, who went to Huntingdon Co. , Pa., with David Musselman. Henry married a daughter of Michael Cryder and they moved to Ross Co. Ohio.

We did think that Deed U-134 meant that David had only two children, Christian and David, but now I think there were probably others who had already received their inheritance. Henry and Maria Musselman must have been deceased by 1773, or they would have been grantors on this deed. There are no Orphan's Court Records in Lancaster County for the Musselmans. They seemed to take care of their own and had as little as possible to do with the courts. (all from Emily's notes)

Delores,
I copied for you the reference to Jacob Haldeman of Lancaster county, PA. He had a daughter, Maria, born c. 1755. This family was in the right place and right time to be the Haldeman one that married into our Musselman line. Don't know if it is, but it looks promising. Jacob Haldeman's son, Jacob, married an Elizabeth Musselman. If you go to the URL below, you can see this family on www.rootsweb.com.
Yes, Peter Heistand was in the Revolutionary war. He was a private in the regiment of VA. He is in the DAR Patriot Index. Not all Mennonites were against the war. Some Musselman names are in the DAR Patriot Index too and they are the same names as in our famliy such as David and Christian. These men were probably first cousins to our John Musselman who married Maria Holtaman. Jacob Brumbaugh and Nathaniel Nesbitt are also in the DAR Index. I bet John Martin served too.
Do you have a copy of John Paul Musselman's obit? I did not know that he had one.
I agree with you re Anna Judd. The Pierson Judd deed record in your information ties us into the Judd line. No doubt about that. I see alot on the internet that is incorrect. I just use the internet as a tool to tell me where I can go to look for records to see if what people are saying is true.
I do not rely on what others say at all.

We do not have any books at our library except Southern genealogy. I sure wish we had some Northern books as many of my ancestors wound up in PA, OH, and IN. The Musselman family is a very interesting one.
Thank you for getting back to me on this. If I find out anymore on our Musselman family, I will keep in touch.
Your cousin,
Lee

HALDEMAN FAMILY. In Rupps History of Lancaster County, p. 397, a list of citizens is given who were chosen in 1775 as a Committee of Public Safety, in the trouble which resulted in the war with England, and among numerous German names, that of Jacob Haldeman(1) appears as one of three for Rapho Township. To his grandson Henry Haldeman, a similar trust was confided at Harrisburg during the so-called Buckshot War in 1838. Jacob Haldeman was the father of John Haldeman, (1753-1832) of Locust Grove, near Bainbridge(2), on the Susquehanna, who lived in the house now occupied by his grandson John (son of John B.) Haldeman, about two miles below Bainbridge. The elder John was married to Maria Brenneman, and they brought up a large family, most of whom were sons, and became successful businessmen(3). After a prosperous career, John Haldeman and wife left their homestead to their eldest son, John B., (1779-1836) and retired to a life of leisure in Columbia. The large stone mill at Locust Grove (subsequently transferred to his fourth son Henry), was built by him and bears the inscription -Erbauet bei John Haldeman and Maria Haldeman, 1790.
About the year 1795 he was a member of the State Legislature for two terms at Philadelphia, where he made the acquaintance of various distinguished men of the period. He was well informed, fond of reading, and a subscriber to works like Guthries Geography, 2 vols. 4to. 1794, and The World Displayed, 8 vols. 8vo. 1795, both of which he presented to S. S. Haldeman when a boy.
Haldeman, S. S., was born at Locust Grove Mills in 1812: the oldest son of Henry Haldeman (1787-1849) and his wife Frances Steman (1794-1826).

In 1835 Prof. Haldeman married Miss. Mary A. Hough, and removed to the residence which they still occupy, at Chickies, where he was subsequently joined by his brothers, Dr. Edwin Haldeman and Paris Haldeman, in the iron business.

(1) Born in German Switzerland, October 7th, 1722; died December 3d, 1783.
General Haldeman, a native of French Switzerland, and the first British Governor of Canada, visited Lancaster County in 1773, and offered to adopt one of Jacob Haldemans sons, as he had not a family of his own. The celebrated scientific writer, Mrs. Marcett, was related to this family.
(2) This town was founded by his sons John B. and Henry Haldeman.
(3) Particularly the second Jacob M. Haldeman, (1781-1857) of Harrisburg, whose son Jacob S. was Minister to Sweden in 1862, and another son, (Richard J.) is now (1872) a member of Congress from Cumberland Co., Penna.

JOHN MUSSELMAN

A John Mosiman, age 23 & Anna Mosiman, 20 arrived on Ship Samuel 11 Aug 1732. On Capt. list the name is MUSELMAN.
A Johannes Mosieman & Andreas Mosselman came in Ship Mascliffe Galley, 22 Dec 1744. (this seems likely the Andrew & John that are in Warwick Tax Lists.) (Rupp's 30,000 names)
John Musselman patented land by the Proprietaries in 1748. (same as above or not)

Christiana Zug cannot be born later than 1738.

Christiana Zug married John Musselman at age 14,(so no later than 1752) (perhaps his 2nd Marriage?)

We know Jacob Musselman,their son, was b-15 Mch 1762, which would mean Christiana is 25 at his birth, so plenty of time for other children before and after 1762.

John Musselman (Will of 1793) states Christian is his eldest son. Christian was a "freeman" 1769 & 1770. Tax records 1760-1768 are misssing, thus we cannot be certain when he became a "freeman", and have not found "young" John a freeman at all. IF this John Musselman is the same John as in Shenandoah Co., Va., he was born 24 Feb. 1743, and md. 27 May 1767, and should have appeared on the "freeman" list during the missing years.

John Musselman, Sr. & wife, Christiana (Deed S 114) to Christian in 1775--land granted John by the Penns in 1769. I need to order this to see what I can learn, if anything!

John Musselman drew his Will in 1793 and in 1797, his executors conveyed the land, 1/2 each to Jacob & Abraham, as per instructions. This land to John by the Proprieteries in 1748. It is bounded by Jacob Musselman, Frederick Michael, Geroge Geiger, Henry Burman, and again Jacob Musselman, contained about 133 acres + 6 ac. allowed for roads. The other children were also named in the Will, each receiving 300£. Beginning 1786, Jacob & Abraham must pay 15 £ per yr on the 1st day of May, for the excess value of the land over 300£. All children treated equally.

The first time I find Abrham in tax records is 1777, on a "list of assessment of Non-Associators". There is John, Christian, and Abrham all pd. 3 - 10.(Does this mean Abraham is just now 21????) Are Non-Assoc. ones who refuse to serve in the Military???

I am wondering if this young John M.took his 300£ and went to Shen. Co. Va. IF THE SAME JOHN.
A John Musselman purchased land in Shenandoah Co., Va. 27 May 1778 from Samuel Beam. Bk. C-49
This John is the Grandfather of my Great-Grt-Grandmother Barbara Musselman md. Eli Wolf in Tippecanoe Co. Ind. in 1837.

These are a few FACTS I've come up with for John & Christiana Musselman.

I don't know if this information helps us any or not, but thought I'd pass it along.

May not be father of John in Shen Co Va

Pennsylvania Folklife, XXIII:2 (Winter 1973-1974), 47-48. Still another Jacob Stahl arrived in 1739 (List 73 A-C).]

121. MARTIN DIETZ, of Mosbach, wanted to go to Pennsylvania in 1751. The government had no objection to his emigration. Martin Dietz arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship St. Andrew, September 14, 1751 (List 165 C).

122. JOHANN HENRICH SEYDENBENDER, possibly of Mosbach, wanted to go to Pennsylvania in 1751. The government had no objection to his emigration. "Such people of common rank remain here among us only as a nuisance, since they are incapable of paying the seigneurial duties, hence let there be no scruples in speeding them on their way most graciously" [dergleicher Leut gemeiner Statt nur zum Ueberlass sich hier aufhalten, auch die herrschafftliche Beschwerden zu entrichten ausserstand, also finde man keine Bedenklichkeit wann in dem Gesuch gnädigst willfahret werde] (Protocol 8105, p. 102). Hennrich Seydenbender arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship St. Andrew, September 14, 1751 (List 165 C).

[Henry Seidebender is listed as resident of Brecknock Township, Berks County, in 1759 (Montgomery, Berks County, p. 1182). In the Waldschmidt Records, 1752-1786, is the marriage of George Seidenbender, son of the late Henry Seidenbaender, to Susanna Brendel, daughter of Philip Brendel, February 16, 1784 (Hinke Collection).]

123. MARTIN SCHUCK, of Reihen, was permitted in 1751 to emigrate to America on payment of 4 florins for manumission and 3 florins emigration tax (Protocol 8105, p. 172). Martin Schuch arrived in Philadelphia on the Ship Edinburgh, September 16, 1751 (List 167 C). Johann Petter Schuch accompanied him.

[One Martin Schuck, of Rapho Township, Lancaster County, made his will January 26, 1801, probated November 11, 1801. His wife's name is not given. His executors were John and Joseph Schuck. His children were (1) John, (2) Susanna married John Rubert, (3) Joseph, (4) Esther married Joseph Gengrich, (5) Abraham, and (6) Salome. Martin Schuck is mentioned in Sower's newspaper, February 29, 1760, as living in Hempfield Township, Lancaster County; his wife's name is given as Anna Maria (Hocker, p. 87).]

EMIGRANTS OF THE YEAR 1753

124. JOHANNES MUSSELMANN. In 1753 the Mennonite Johannes Musselmann of Zuzenhausen received permission to marry the daughter of the Mennonite Samuel Petzer of Meckesheim and permission to emigrate to America (Protocol 6199, pp. 663, 678). Hans Musselmann, aged 22, arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship Patience, September 17, 1753 (List 200 A-B).

[According to H. Frank Eshleman, Historic Background and Annals of the Swiss and German Pioneer Settlers of South Eastern Pennsylvania (Lancaster, Pennsylvania, 1917), p. 238, Hans Musselman belonged to the Mennonite congregation in Meckesheim, two hours southward from "Neckarsmond" (=Neckargemünd). The congregation included the Mennonites at Zuzenhausen, Daisbach, and Langzael.

For the Johannes Musselman of Great Swamp (1750) and Upper Saucon (1759), see Schulze, I, 110, 213, 260. John Musselman of Upper Saucon, Northampton County, made his will January 4, 1773, probated March 29, 1773. The will names his wife Elisabeth, the following children: Jacob (a minor), Veronica, Catharina, and Elisabetha. Executors were Jacob Yoder, and John Newcomer, Jr.

Another John Musselman, of Warwick Township, Lancaster County, made his will August 20, 1793, probated November 18, 1797. It names his wife Christina, and the following children: Christian, Abraham, Jacob, Barbara, John, Margaret, and Christina. Executors were Christian Frantz and Christian Hostetter.]

125. GEORG MARTIN, of Neunkirchen (Kreis Mosbach) received permission in 1753 to emigrate with his wife and three children (Protocol 6199, p. 637). Joerg Marthin arrived on the Ship Edinburg, September 14, 1753 (List 199 B-C).

EMIGRANTS OF THE YEAR 1754

126. JOSEPH BUBIGKOFFER, Reformed, noncitizen [Beisass], on the Rohrhof near Brühl (Kreis Mannheim), was, on account of poverty, manumitted gratis and permitted in 1753 to emigrate (Protocol 6200, p. 520). Joseph Bubikofer, aged 30, arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship Brothers, September 30, 1754 (List 219 A-C).

["Bibikhoffer" families appear in the records of First Reformed Church, Lancaster (PGS, IV). For example, John Bibikhoffer, son of Nicholas and Anna Delia Bibikhoffer, was born April 1, baptized April 13, 1740 (p. 254). In the Waldschmidt Records, 1752-1786 (Hinke Collection), appears the marriage, on August 1, 1756, of Joseph Buby-Kofer, son of the late Frantz Buby-Kofer, to Anna Maria Ulrich, daughter of the late John Jacob Ulrich (p. 59). Joseph and Ann Maria Bibickhoffer had a son John Jacob, born August 27, baptized September 7, 1758 (First Reformed Church, Lancaster, PGS, IV, 273).]

127. NICOLAUS FEDEROLFF, of Dossenheim (Kreis Heidelberg), who wanted to go to South Carolina with his wife and three children, was permitted to emigrate in 1753 (Protocol 6200, p. 631).

[Among the Federolff families of Pennsylvania, who may or may not have been related to Nicolaus Federolff, are the Württemberg family headed by Peter Feterholf, born at Wachbach,, Württemberg, March 20, 1699, who married Anna Maria Rothermel, born February, 1712, at Wachbach, daughter of John and Sybilla (Zimmermann) Rothermel, of Wachbach. They settled in Macungie Township, Lehigh County, where the emigrant died August 15, 1784. See Abraham H. Rothermel, "The Pioneer Rothermel Family of Berks County," in Transactions of the Historical Society of Berks County, III (1923), 134-143; also Penn Germania, XIII, 204-207. A Johannes Federwolf (sic), with wife Anna Catharina and three daughters, left Dossenheim for Carolina in 1752. See Hartman, "Amerikafahrer von Dossenheim im 18. Jahrhundert," Mannheimer Geschichtsblätter, XXVII (1926), cols. 55-58, republished in Pennsylvania Folklife, XXI:2 (Winter 1971-1972), 46-48].

128. JOHANN MICHAEL ROESCH, day laborer from the Bruchhäuserhof (today Bruchhausen, Gemeinde Sandhausen, Kreis Heidelberg), was permitted in 1754, along with Johannes Krauss of the same place (No. 129, below) to emigrate taxfree with his wife and children (Protocol 6200, pp. 648, 659). Michael Räsh (Rich, Rust) arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship Brothers, September 30, 1754 (List 219 A-C).

[One Michael Resch and wife Anna had a child baptized July 6, 1761, by the Reverend George Michael Weiss (Goshenhoppen Records, PGS, XXVIII, 300). A Michael Rosch was among the elders and deacons of the Reading Lutheran congregation in 1777 (Muhlenberg, Journal, III, 45).]

129. JOHANNES KRAUSS, day laborer, of the Bruchhäuserhof (today Bruchhausen, Gemeinde Sandhausen, Kreis Heidelberg) was permitted in 1754, along with Johann Michael Rösch of the same place (No. 128, above), to emigrate taxfree with his wife and children (Protocol 6200, pp. 648, 659).

[This relatively common name is difficult to sort out. One Palatine John Krause settled in what is now Lebanon County, where his son Captain David Krause, born circa 1750, in Lebanon Township, achieved fame in the Revolution and served as member of the Assembly from Dauphin County, 1785, Associate Judge of Lebanon County and other offices (Egle, Lebanon County, p. 277).

Another Johannes Krauss settled in Heidelberg Township, Lehigh County; for a sketch of his descendants, see The Pennsylvania German, VII (1906), 298-301.

Still another John Krauss married in 1753 and was a member of Zeltenreich's Reformed Church, Lancaster County, in 1754 (Waldschmidt Records, 1752-1786, Hinke Collection). Another Johannes Krauss, with his wife Catharina, appears in the New Hanover Lutheran Church, 1770 (PGS, XX, 273). And of course the Krauss families of Montgomery County include the Schwenkfelder Krausses from Silesia, emigrants of the 1730's.]

130. PHILIPP LEYER, widower, of Aglasterhausen (Kreis Mosbach), was permitted in 1754, with his six children, to emigrate gratis on account of their propertyless status (Protocol 6200, pp. 421, 452).

131. DAVID MUELLER, of Altneudorf (Kreis Heidelberg), was permitted to emigrate taxfree in 1754 (Protocol 6200, p. 634).

132. JACOB SCHIFFERDECKER, of Neunkirchen (Kreis Mosbach), was permitted in 1754 to emigrate on payment of the usual taxes (Protocol 6200, pp. 385, 426). Jacob Schifferdecker arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship Henrietta, October 22, 1754 (List 226 A-C).

[Jacob Shiffendecker (sic) settled in or near Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where he appears in the records of First Reformed Church (Hinke Collection), where his name is spelled Shiffendecker. His wife's name is given variously as Maria Catharina and Catharina. They had a son Jacob born February 27, 1756, baptized March 3, 1756 (PGS, IV, 268); a daughter Margaret, born October 13, 1757, baptized November 23, 1757 (PGS, IV, 272); and a daughter Anna Maria, born August 28, 1759, baptized September 28, 1759 (PGS, IV, 276). A George Shifferdecker is listed as an inmate in Warwick Township, Lancaster County, in 1779 and 1782 (Pennsylvania Archives, 3d Ser. XVII, 507, 781).]

133. CATHARINA ZIMMERMANN, of Moosbrunn (Kreis Heidelberg), received permission to marry in 1754 and at the same time permission to emigrate (Protocol 6200, pp. 932, 946).

134. JOHANN STEPHAN MARTIN, citizen's son, of Neckarkatzbach (Kreis Mosbach), who had already emigrated to Pennsylvania, was granted manumission in 1754 (Protocol 6200, pp. 440, 464). Hans Steffan Marthin arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship Shirley, September 5, 1751 (List 163 C).

[One Stephen Martin was a resident and tavernkeeper in Lancaster Borough, Lancaster County, 1771-1773, 1779, 1782 (Pennsylvania Archives, 3d Ser. XVII, 10, 296, 461, 611, 760). Stephen Martin married Catharine Weidler, daughter of Michael Weidler of Manheim Township, Lancaster County, who died in 1770. Stephen Martin was executor of Elizabeth Weidler, of Manheim Township, his mother-in-law, in 1783; he was also executor of the estate of Leonard Klein, of Lancaster, probated 1793.]

135. JOHANN MICHEL WAGNER, of Sinsheim, was permitted to go to the New Land in 1754 (Protocol 8107, pp. 250, 325).

EMIGRANTS OF THE YEAR 1755

136. MICHAEL WEIS, of Waldkatzenbach, was permitted in 1755 to emigrate to America, on payment of 30 florins for the tithe (10. Pfennig) (Protocol 8108, p. 335). Johan Michael Weiss arrived in Philadelphia on the Ship Neptune, with Mathias Weiss, on October 7, 1755 (List 234 A-C).

MURDER ON THE HIGHWAY
THE MUSSELMAN CASE

Pa.

CARLISLE, January 10

On Sunday evening last, between the hours of 7 and 8 David Mussleman, as he was travelling from Lancaster county from which he had removed some time ago, to Juniata in Bedford county, where he lately resided; was attacked on the road from Louisburg, about 6 miles below Carlisle, and murdered in a most barbarous manner, and robbed of a sum of money and of his watch. The conflict was heard at some distance by John Junken & others— the strokes resembled the cutting of saplings, and a gun or pistol being discharged, M. Junken supposed some waggoners were encamping and kindling a fire, which prevented him from running to the place, as he intended when he first heard the noise.—Next morning the body was found—some of those who saw it, have seen the bodies of many who had been lacerated by the savages; but never saw one so dreadfully mangled as was that of the deceased—his gun was found by him broken in pieces, and a bludgeon was lying by him, the end of which was shivered as to resemble a hickory broom, which had been steeped in blood.

The coroner's inquest found that he had been willfully murdered by some person or persons unknown.

On Sunday morning a man came to Harris's ferry, saying he had rode a considerable distance to meet with his comrade there, and waited there a considerable time, till seeing the deceased appear, he said that was his comrade—they crossed the river together; but it did not appear that the deceased knew him nor did they take notice of each other—the stranger wrangled about the price of his ferriage, and said his money was almost done—he and the deceased rode together on Sunday evening to John Walker's tavern where the deceased had his horse fed and a refreshment for himself—the stranger fed his own horse and continued in the other end of the house—when they were taking horse the deceased, taking out his watch, said 'it is just 2 minutes past 7 o'clock.'—The stranger's horse was found near the body and the horse of the deceased could not be found. The country was immediately alarmed all around.—the people deserve praise for their spirited endeavours to apprehend the murderer.—A man who had not heard of the murder came up with a horse answering the discription of the horse on which the deceased had rode, near Lisburn, standing saddled in the road, as if the rider had just quit him at the end of a race—he drove the horse to Lisburn where he saw a man crossing Yellow Breeches in a canoe whom he supposed had been the rider: on the return of the ferryman he mentioned that the cloaths of the traveller were bloody—the bystanders then suspected that he had murdered some person—immediately some of them went to give the alarm at the ferries and others raised the hue and cry through the country—they were soon joined by others who informed them that a man had been murdered, and in two minutes afterwards the company saw a man meeting them who answered the description of the person who had crossed in the canoe—They seized him & charged him with the fact, which he denied—He attempted to escape after he was taken and when pursued presented a pistol—he was immediately retaken and searched—two pocket pistols were found with him, 56 dollars, 2 half joes and a watch in his jacket pocket, he having no watch pocket in his breeches—He confesses that he was the person who crossed the river and was at John Walker's with the deceased, but says they were both attacked by two men who knocked him down, and then attacking the deceased he made off—walked all night, and although he saw houses did not go into any of them, because he wanted to go to York as quickly as possible to advertise his horse; when the money was taken out of his pocket, there was some small money in a pocket by itself, when that was laid hold of, he said, "that is my own," and on being asked to whom the rest belonged, said it was his own also.—He says his name is Joseph Ramsay Warner, and that he came from Chester county. He is now lodged in Carlisle gaol.—Whether he is the person who committed this crime, an impartial jury of his country will decide; far be it from us to prepossess the public against any person in the situation of the prisoner, and therefore we only state facts without attempting to draw any conclusion from them.

From The Carlisle Gazette, January 10, 1787.

On Saturday last was executed on the commons near this borough, agreeable to his sentence, Joseph Ramsey Warner, for the murder of David Musselman, which he denied at his last moments. He Barbara was born NEFF, dau of Daniel Neff [B7] and Christian Erb. Her first marriage was to a David Musselman from Lancaster Co., PA. He was murdered in Cumberland Co., PA, at New Kingston, near Carlisle, on 7 Jan 1787.

See "Pennsylvania Mennonite Heritage," Lancaster Mennonite Historical Society, Inc., Jan 1989 issue, pg. 21 with story of murder. Story appeared in the Carlisle Gazette of January 10th, 1787. The story states he was murdered on Sunday evening last, about six miles below Carlisle," This would make the date of death January 7, 1787. Estate was administered by Barbara's brother John Neff [B75] who lived in Huntingdon Co., PA, between Alexandria and Petersburg.

Also see: "History of Cumberland Co., PA," Chapter VII, page 132, Court of Common Pleas

Barbara then married Dr. Peter Swine in the early 1790's.

4. Our ministering brethren present, in good standing in their respective churches at home, were invited to a seat with us.

5. The following brethren, Christian Cagy, David Beaver, William Clevanger, John Berry, Abraham Aleshire, James Dungan, Zachariah Linton and Peter Jackson, were appointed a committee to arrange the business of the association, and report on Monday.

6. Our brethren David Kaufman, John Serjeant, John Lee and Lewis Seitz to preach on Lord's day.

7. Adjourned until Monday the 23d at 9 o'clock—brother John Hite prayed.

Lord's day spent in preaching and divine worship—sermons delivered by brother Serjeant from Psalms lxvi 16—Lee, from Rev. x. 1, and first clause of 2nd verse—Seitz, from Rev. vi. 17, in the German language, and Kaufman from first Peter, i. 23—and we can truly say we had a refreshing season.

Monday, 23d instant.

Met pursuant to adjournment—brother Cory prayed.

1. A corresponding letter from the Miami association, but no messenger, was handed in by our messenger, brother David Kaufman.

2. A messenger from Straight Creek association, but no letter, who took a seat with us.

3. A corresponding letter from Mad River association, by their messenger, William Castoe, praying for a correspondence with us, which was cheerfully assented to; and the messenger took a seat with us.

4. Brother William D. Hendren to write a corresponding letter to Straight Creek and Mad River associations—and Peter Jackson to the Miami association.

5. Brother George Corwine to write a circular letter for this present year.

6. The committee of arrangement made report, read, and made the order of the day.

1. A committee appointed to draw a new constitution in place of the old one, and the following brethren were appointed; Lewis Seitz, Christian Cagy, Zachariah Linton, James Dungan and Peter Jackson.

2. The corresponding letters handed in, read and approved.

3. Brother Nathan Cory to visit Miami association, to meet on Saturday before the 2nd Lord's day in September, 1817.

4. Brethren T. Snelson and William Baker, to visit Straight Creek association, to meet at Red Oak Church, Adams county, on the Friday before the fourth Lord's day in August 1817.

5. Brother Benjamin Cave, and Peter Sperry, to visit Mad River association, to meet at Big Beaver Church, Green county, on Friday before the third Lord's day in September 1817.

6. This association is divided into three districts, viz. Buckskin, Old Town and Deer Creek form the first district; Pleasant Run, Walnut, Licking and Bethel form the second district; and Union, Big Bottom, Kiger and Adams form the third district.

7. To be one yearly meeting this year, to meet at Licking Church, on Saturday before the second Lord's day in August 1817; and brothers Caves, Hite and Sperry to attend the same.

8. The circular letter read and approved.

9. The new constitution read and adopted.

10. Four queries handed in Kiger church letter; they wishing to know the minds of the association respecting them.

11. Query 1. Shall we hold in fellowship a preacher who hath assisted in constituting a church of another faith and order, or himself hath constituted such a church, or shall we fellowship the church to which such preacher belongs, if she approves of his conduct in so doing?

12. Answered in the negative.

13. Query 2. Is it legal to receive a member who has been baptised by a preacher who does not believe in any particular mode of baptism, although the person who offers to join was baptised by immersion?

14. Answered in the negative.

15. Query 3. Is it consistent with the order of the Gospel, for a preacher to administer baptism within or without the bounds of such church to which such preacher belongs, without first notifying the church, or within the limits of any other church of the same faith and order, without first notifying the church in whose limits such candidate resides?

16. Answer. This query laid over until our next association.

17. Query 4. Have we authority from Scripture to disfellowship a member who holds a slave or slaves, if such member uses such slave or slaves with humanity and gentleness, giving them such things that are just and equitable?

18. Answer. We do not wish to correspond with any association or church that do in principle or practice hold to involuntary slavery.

19. A query from the Big Bottom church:

Query. Is it a duty required of Christians to wash one another's feet, as our Lord washed his disciples feet?

20. Answer. It is no bar of communion with us, to wash one another's feet, or to omit it.

21. A letter from Buckskin church, praying for admittance into this association, and we being satisfied with their faith, was received into union with us.

22. Also a letter from Walnut Creek church, praying for admittance with us, and we being satisfied with their faith and order, was received into union with us.

23. Brother William D. Hendren to write a circular letter for next year.

24. Five dollars and ninety-three cents contributed to pay the expense of correspondence with the foreign Missionary Society, and put into the hands of Samuel Comer, our Secretary.

25. Brothers Aleshire and Parsons to visit Adams Church, and report at our next association.

26. Brother Sperry to preach the introductory sermon next year; in case of failure, Elder Caves.

27. Our next association to meet at Pleasant Run meeting

Descendants of Christian Musselman (d. 1734) of Lancaster Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania

by Emily D. Phelan

Christian Musselman of Lancaster Township, his son Henry Musselman of Hempfield Township, and Hans/John Musselman of Earl Township were the earliest Musselmans in tax records of (now) Lancaster County. John Musselman's name appeared in 1721. His only known child was Christian Musselman, who appeared in the 1750 tax list of Earl Township. Christian Musselman of Lancaster Township appeared in the 1724 tax list as Christian "Mudlman." A Charles Musselman on the 1726 tax list is no doubt Christian since no other reference exists to a Charles Musselman. Henry Musselman appeared first on the 1718 tax record. He had land surveyed in 1717.[1]

Two brothers, Christian and Andrew Moseman, came to North America on the Pennsylvania Merchant on September 18, 1733.[2] In 1739 they purchased land from Hans Graff in Earl Township.[3] Andrew died in 1747. His name was spelled Musselman on land surveys and Moseman on his will.[4] Christian Musselman, his "well beloved brother," was his sole heir. The brothers and sisters in Germany had no claim on his estate.

The 1734 inventory of Christian Musselman was made by Michael Crider and Ulrich Roth/Road.

In 1750 Christopher Mossman along with Peter Widener and Isaac Widener were granted land in Cocalico Township by heirs of Catherina Weidner. Peter and Isaac Widener deeded their part of this land to Christian Mosseman in 1751.[5] In 1755 Christian Moseman died intestate in Cocalico Township. His widow Barbara served as administrator.[6] In 1766 Salome Musselman, a spinster of Cocalico Township, died intestate. Christian Rohrbach and wife Barbara were administrators.[7]

The ship Samuel carried the following persons to Philadelphia on August 11, 1732: John/Hans Mosiman (aged 23), Anna Mosiman (aged 20), Jacob Guth/Gut (aged 20), Susanna Guth (aged 20).[8] John Musselman and his brother-in-law Jacob Good/Gut settled in Brecknock Township, Lancaster County. The only known child of John Musselman was Matthias.

The 1734 will of Christian Musselman

In 1742 Mathias Musselman immigrated to North America on the Francis and Elizabeth. He lived in Lancaster Township and died sometime before March 23, 1773, when his oldest son Benjamin, aged 21 or older, took over three acres in Lancaster Township and paid shares to other heirs—Isaac and Mathias, who had died without heirs, and Esther, who was a minor living in Frederick County, Maryland, near her guardian Jonathan Hager.[9]

Johannes Mosiman and Andreas Mosselman came to North America on the Muscliffe Galley on December 22, 1744.[10] They settled in Warwick Township and are listed in the 1751 tax as Moselman. We have no record of the children of Andrew. John Musselman died in 1797 and named the following children in his will: Christian, John, Barbara, Margreth, Christina, Abraham and Jacob. He partitioned his homestead between Abraham and Jacob, probably the two youngest sons.[11]

Another Jacob Musselman lived in Warwick Township, possibly a son of Hans Musselman of Earl Township. In 1748 Jacob bought 188 acres in Warwick Township from Jacob Stouffer.[12] There were probably other children, but Jacob's only known son was Jacob, Jr., who moved to West Pennsboro Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. In 1827 at the age of 83, Jacob, Jr., married as his second wife, Sarah Tobias, in Cumberland County.[13] His will was probated in January 1834.

On October 13, 1769, another Jacob Musselman arrived in Philadelphia on the ship Minerva.[14] This may be the Jacob who died in 1798 in Donegal Township and had the following sons: Christian, John, Jacob, Henry, Michael, Daniel, and David, plus four daughters.[15] The eldest son, Christian, died in 1829 in East Hempfield Township leaving his wife Susanna Giesy/Gaesy, daughter of Henry Giesy, and no children.[16] Susanna married her second husband Godleib Koerper (d. 1843).[17] Jacob and Michael Musselman moved to Logan County, Ohio. Daniel died in Columbia County, Pennsylvania. Henry died in Baltimore County, Maryland.

Christian Musselman of Lancaster Township

Christian Musselman (ca. 1668-1734) first appears on the 1724 tax list in Conestoga Township, (then) Chester County. He provided for his daughters and wife in his will, but did not mention their names. He willed a plantation to his son David who had to pay the other heirs, including Michael. Peter inherited the land in Lancaster Township where his father had lived. Michael Gritor and Michael Frantz witnessed the will.[18] The children of Christian Musselman were Henry, Frena, Eva, David, Michael, and Peter.[19]

The late Martin H. Brackbill believed that Christian Musselman lived in Lancaster Township along the Conestoga River near Wabank.[20] He wrote in 1972 that he had found journals in the Pennsylvania state archives which described quit rent payments.[21] In the first month of 1734 payments made to Samuel Blunston at Lancaster included those from Abraham Hare for 260 acres of the 600 acres surveyed to his father, A. Hare, from Rudy Hare for 150 acres of the above tract, from Christian Hare for 140 acres of that above tract, and from Christian Musselman for 50 acres of the above tract.

This shows that Christian Musselman's home was on part of the 600 acres owned by Abraham Herr (1660-1725), but I found no recorded deed showing that Abraham Herr sold land to Christian Musselman. Since Christian willed his farm to his son Peter, I also searched under that name and found nothing. However, the 1750 tax record does place Peter in Lancaster Township.

One deed dated 1800 traces the 600-acre tract back to the original patent.[22] Abraham Herr (1660-1725) received a patent for 600 acres in 1717.[23] He died intestate and left eight children: Abraham, Rudy, Christian, John, Barbara (m. David Martin), Elizabeth (m. Jacob Batzel), Samuel, and David. Abraham Herr (1700-1785) received 295 acres and in 1746 deeded 36 acres of the 295 acres to Peter Musselman. In 1756 Abraham Herr (1700-1785) and his wife granted 246 acres of the 295 acres to their eldest son Abraham Herr. This Abraham Herr (d. 1803) of Lancaster Township and wife Feronica deeded land in 1800 to their son-in-law, Henry Kauffman, and his wife Feronica.

Abraham Herr (d. 1725) probably had not given Christian Musselman (d. 1734) a deed to his land before the latter died in 1734. Since Christian Musselman had previously willed this land to his son Peter in 1734, Abraham Herr (1700-1785) deeded the land to Peter. This 1800 deed states that Peter Musselman had also purchased 50 acres adjoining the Herr tract from Ludwick Stone. Peter Musselman died intestate without issue leaving his brothers and sisters or their children as heirs. On October 9, 1766, Peter's heirs sold both tracts of land to Melchor Henneberger. After several further transactions, the two tracts were purchased by Abraham Herr, the grantor in the 1800 deed.

    m.(2) Elizabeth Gochenour (?)
    Henry probably came to America before his father, for he had land surveyed in 1717. He was not mentioned in his father's will, no doubt, because he had already received his inheritance. Henry owned several tracts of land in what is now East Hempfield Twp. He may have married twice since an age difference of about ten years existed between his first two children and his last three.[24]

[24] Will Y-2-479, Lancaster, states that Joseph Gochenower was the brother-in-law of Henry Musselman (d. 1752). Perhaps this means that Henry married an Elizabeth Gochenower or perhaps this refers to the Joseph who was the second husband of Frena Musselman (M2), Henry's sister. If the latter is true, then this could be the Henry Musselman who married Elizabeth Meyer/Moyer; the latter claim is supported by Deed 90, Chester County Archives, West Chester, Pa., and Jane Evans Best, "A Bear Saga: The Birmensdorf Connection," Pennsylvania Mennonite Heritage 11 (April 1988): 43. Deed A-96, Lancaster, shows that Henry willed land which he bought in Donegal Township in 1749 to his son Christian. Deed WW-211, Lancaster, shows that his land in Hempfield Township was divided among his other children in 1765, evidently when his youngest child was an adult.

[25] See Will J-1-177, Lancaster. Henry did not name his wife in his will; she was evidently already deceased. Henry only mentioned a few of his children by name.

his father in 1799.

[29] See Bond 5-192, Lancaster, which shows that letters of administration were granted to his brother Henry (M113) in 1799. See also Miscellaneous Book, 1796-1801, p. 426, Lancaster.

[30] Deed A-96, Lancaster.

[31] Deed WW-211, Lancaster. See also Stewart W. Herman, Daniel's Line (Shelter Island Heights, New York: author, 1978), pp. 162-164, who suggests that this Christian Musselman of Donegal Township may be the one who carried a peace message to the British in September 1780. Mr. Herman may be correct; although Christian's name appears on the Donegal Township militia rolls in 1778, it is not on the 1780 tax list.

[32] The 1790 census for Hempfield Township shows Peter Musselman with three males (over 16 years), 4 males (under 16), and 4 females. Deed WW-215 shows that on April 28, 1795, Peter Musselman sold the land in Hempfield Township which he inherited from his father to John Light for £3500. Peter then moved to York County, Pennsylvania. In the 1800 census for Warrington Township, Peter Musselman is shown with 2 males (between 16 and 26 years), 1 male (24-45), 1 male (over 45), 2 females (under 10), 1 female (26-45), and 1 female (over 45).

Deed 2Q-181, York, shows that Peter Musselman, Sr., and wife Margaret purchased land on December 29, 1794, and later in 1802 sold their land in Washington (formerly Warrington) Township, York County, to George Fhanestock. Peter Musselman and his family may have moved to Montgomery County, Ohio, since his name is found on the 1808 tax list for Montgomery County. A Peter Musselman, Jr., bought land there in 1815. These Musselmans evidently moved to Shelby County, Ohio, because the 1820 census there lists one Peter Musselman living with 1 male (over 45), 1 female (16-26), and 1 female (over 45). It also lists a Peter Musselman with 1 male (under 10), 1 male (16-26), and 1 female (16-26). A Peter Musselman from Shelby County served in the War of 1812.

[33] Will G-1-92, Lancaster. Information on the Kilhoffer family is from Harold M. Kilheffer, 942 W. Fairway Drive, Lancaster, PA 17603.

[34] Will A-1-246, Lancaster. Joseph Gochenour (d. 1764) married Elizabeth _______ after the death of Frena Musselman, and they had two children named Mary and Joseph. See Miscellaneous Book, 1763-1767, p. 186, Lancaster, which shows that Joseph Gochenour had a son, Joseph, Jr., who died shortly before his father. Joseph, Jr., was not named as an heir of Peter Musselman (M6) in the 1800 deed (M-3-542) so I am not sure if he was Frena Musselman's son. However, Joseph, Jr., died before 1766 when Musselman's land was sold and his children were minors at that date. Perhaps their names were not on the 1800 deed for that reason.

[35] Will Y-2-266, Lancaster. Theodore W. Herr, Genealogical Record of Reverend Hans Herr and His Direct Lineal Descendants, (Lancaster, Pa.: authors, 1908), p. 2, lists this Samuel Herr (d. 1787) as a son of Samuel Herr. However, I have found no record of the latter Samuel. After the death of Abraham Herr in 1725, his older children divided his land and did not name their young half brothers, Samuel (M21) and David (M22), still infants, as heirs. I have found no record that guardians were appointed for the children in either Chester or Lancaster counties. A later deed (C-1-633) in 1768 does list Samuel and David as heirs of Abraham Herr.

He inherited a plantation from his father in 1734. A 1773 deed states that David died intestate and left two children, David and Christian.[48] Christian sold his share of his father's estate to his brother David for £550. Recently we found letters of administration of the estate of David Musselman granted to Maria Musselman and Henry Musselman in 1766. Since letters of administration were usually granted to the wife and eldest son of the deceased, I believe that Maria was David's wife and Henry was the eldest of at least three sons. Another Henry Musselman (M11) at that time was the son of Henry Musselman (d. 1752) (M1). I compared his signature with that of the administrator and they are not the same. David's inventory listed three Bibles. What a blessing if someone could locate them!

The above signature of Henry Musselman (M41) on the 1766 inventory of his father, David Musselman (M4), appears to be from a different hand than the signature below—that of Henry Musselman (M11) on the 1752 administration bond of Henry Musselman (M1).

He owned the 194 acres in Hempfield Twp. which had belonged to his father. He also bought 51 acres from Adam Tate in 1780 and 15 acres from John Weller—260 acres total. By 1784 he was so far in debt that his land had to be sold. Martin Cryder of Hempfield Twp. paid £3200 for the 260 acres. David and his family moved to Bedford (now) Huntingdon Co., Pa. He returned to Lancaster Co., possibly on a business trip, and on his way home in January 1787 a robber murdered him between Camp Hill and Carlisle. The administration of David Musselman's estate in Bedford Co. by his brother-in-law, John Neff, confirms his murder.[50] David's widow married Dr. Peter Swine of Huntingdon Co. Their daughter Barbara Swine (1800-1820) married Mr. Long. Barbara Swine, Christina (Erb) Neff, and Barbara Long are buried in Neff Cemetery, Huntingdon Co.

He was not married in 1773 when he sold his share in his father's estate to his brother David for £550. No wife was named as grantor. He purchased eight acres in Hempfield Twp. from Valentine Breneissen on April 7, 1776, and sold four acres and twenty-six perches of the eight acres to Conrad Reitzel on June 13, 1777.[54] Militia and tax records in Warwick Twp. from 1779 through 1782 show two Christian Musselmans.[55] One was the son of John Musselman of Warwick Twp.; the other may have been Christian (M43). In 1786 Christian bought land in Manor Twp. from Andrew Bausman.[56]

22 May 1794-the 16th child of John Mary Musselman is born.
1820 & 1830-U.S. Census, Shen. Co. Va.-John & Mary appear to be residing with son, Christian
7 Dec 1822-Shen. Co. Va. John & Mary convey land to their 3 sons, Daniel,Christian & David.
The portion of Shen Co. Va. the Musselman's reside in becomes Page County in 1831.
30 Aug 1831-John Musselman wrote his Will and names 14 children, but not his wife. She is probably deceased .
23 May 1836-Page Co. Va., the will of John Musselman is proved.
The above Martin Kaufman/Coffman was known as "Whitehouse Martin", and (d-1805) son of Martin & Barbara, who came to Va. from Lancaster Co. Pa. in 1736, to what was then Augusta Co. Va. The Will did not name the children, but a deed in Hempfield Tsp. Lanc. Co. Pa.did. Inventory for Martin's estate was made by Daniel Stover, Jacob Burner & John Holdman, June 16, 1849. (from the Kauffman/Coffman Family History)
There was a Henry Musselman with property next to the Kauffman's in Lanc. Co. Pa. It seems the Coffman/Musselman relationship carried on to Virginia..

Warwick Township was on a portion of the northern border of Hempfield Township, Lanc. Co.,Pa.

ity on the South Fork was in Spotsylvania County, which certainly included all the land in Virgina west of the Blue Ridge Mountains. In 1734 the Luray settlement became part of Orange County which was created out of the large Spotsylvania County. Four years later boundaries changed and Luray became part of the county of Augusta. In 1745 the northern part of Augusta County, including the Luray settlement, was taken away to help form Frederick County. In 1772 and in 1777, respectively, Shenandoah and Rockingham Counties were carved out of parts of Frederick and Augusta Counties. Finally Page County, in 1831, was created out of Shenandoah County. This means that the original settlement of Mennonites, during the first century of its history, 1727-1831, was in six counties without actually changing location. These boundary line changes meant that the official land and tax records of these first Virginia Mennonites are found in six different sets of widely scattered county records. The county history of Mennonites west of the Massanutten Mountain is almost as varied.

The original settlements east and west of the Massanutten Range did not remain self-contained units or settlements, as the county histories would indicate. They soon expanded. The Page County settlement, the largest and the one about which we know the most, overflowed west across the Massanutten Mountain, occupying territories in the vicinity of Woodstock on the North Branch of the Shenandoah River in what finally became Shenandoah County. This settlement was only twenty miles from Luray. The repetition of family names in these settlements indicates a rather close association. Primitive methods of travel did not prevent the exchange of visits between the two settlements.

Then, too, the Opecqon settlement at Springdale near Winchester in what became Frederick County overflowed to the east and south, to points including Strasburg and Woodstock. The former was laid off or planned by Peter Stauffer. The town originally was called "Stauffer-stadt." While most of the Stauffers were Mennonites, it is not likely that Peter Stauffer was one. Woodstock was settled by people from both settlements and served as a connecting link for Mennonites of the Valley in the eighteenth century.

Early Settlers

The first settlers of the Valley invariably came here by way of Pennsylvania. It is not known when many of these German immigrants came to Virginia, but we do know when and how they reached Philadelphia, providing they came in 1727 or later. Prior to that date no immigrant records were kept, and when no dates are given it must be inferred that they came before records were kept. In listing the possible early Mennonite settlers of the Valley, the date of the landing at Philadelphia and the name of the ship on which they came will be given whenever this information is available.

A probable list of Mennonite settlers for Page County exclusive of church leaders included: Abram Strickler, Joseph Rhodes, John Brubaker, Abraham Brubaker, Henry Sowter, Ludwig Stone, John Bomgarner, Henry Bromback, Nicholas Berry, Hans Root, and Hendricks Pomgarddiner (August 30, 1743, on ship Francis and Elizabeth). This list would also include the names of Jacob Borner, John Holman, and Daniel Stover, who were mentioned as being of the "brotherhood" by Martin Kauffman, Sr.

In addition to the above names the Page County Deed Books list: Blossers, Millers, Goods, Heistons, Algers, Lineweavers, Thompsons, Gochenours, and others.

For Frederick and Shenandoah Counties the list likely included: John Strickler, Jacob Funk, Christian Grove, Michael Burner, Jacob Beery, George Bowman, Abraham Hendrick, John Crabill, Christley Stover, who made "solemn affirmation" in court, Hans Huldeman (October 2, 1727, on ship Adventure Galley), Peter Hockman and Jn. Fotter, (October 16, 1727, on ship Friendship), Christian Newswanger, (August 24, 1728), Heinrich Funk (September 9, 1738, on board ship Snow Two Sisters), Peter Ebersool (September 3, 1739, on ship Robert and Alice), Johannes Franty Grove (September 7, 1748, on ship Hamshire), Anthony Spangler, who used an affirmation in court, and Francis Weaver, who, in the same court "affirmeth, she being a Mennonite." Jeremiah Eberli came on ship St. Andrews on September 23, 1752.

HISTORY OF MENNONITES IN VA

STAUNTON, VA: c1959, McCLURE PRINTING

Christian Neuschanger and Daniel Stauffer. Neuschanger and Stauffer were very likely Mennonites. Therefore, it is possible that a number of Mennonites came to Virginia as a result of these Indian disturbances in Pennsylvania. Another factor that entered in a great deal, no doubt, was the new land policy of Penn's sons who had full control after the death of their father, William Penn, in 1728. Their land policy was less liberal than their father's had been. Quitrents were more successfully and uniformly collected and squatters were ferreted out and denied the privilege of occupying land in the state of Pennsylvania.

Still another important reason for the actual settlement of the Shenandoah Valley was the lure of the land itself—a land of running waters, prairies, scattered forests, hills, and mountains. This happy hunting ground of the Indian had a special attraction to the Swiss Palatines for it was like their native Switzerland.

Governor Gooch of the State of Virginia, who was interested in getting settlers for the Valley for the purposes of establishing a sort of buffer state between the Indian of the west and the white man of the east, made land grants quite freely. Even though the laws of uniformity in respect to State Church were definite and well enforced in the eastern part of the state, he was not particular about the religious affiliations of the people who settled the Valley. There were laws prohibiting the settlement of Quakers east of the Blue Ridge, but Quakers and related groups were not debarred from the Valley. The final result of this liberal policy was the actual settlement of a number of Mennonites and Quakers in "New Virginia."

Land Speculators

The land agents or speculators who were anxious to get settlers for their respective grants of land, played an important role in the settlement of the Valley. Several of these knew the Mennonites, lived among them, and were able to get them to sign up for land on the frontier.

The first land agent to bring settlers here was Jacob Stover, a native of Switzerland who came to Virginia by way of Pennsylvania. Stover's original grant consisted of two five-thousand-acre plots. He brought a number of settlers composed of Mennonites, Lutherans, and Calvinists to occupy his grants. This group, preceded a short time before by Adam Miller, the first white settler, constituted the first settlement of white people in the Valley. This settlement was made in what is now Page County, on the South Fork of the Shenandoah River and its tributaries in 1727.

Several years later another land speculator, the above-mentioned Joist Hite, became interested in land in Virginia. Hite came to this country in 1710 by way of New York. Within seven years he moved to Pennsylvania and lived first at Germantown and then in the Perkiomen community, on the Schuylkill near Valley Forge. Here he was engaged in the milling and possibly other businesses for a number of years. He was one of the signers of the 1728 petition for better protection against the marauding Indians.

About the same time Joist Hite bought land in the Valley of Virginia from a man named Van Metre. The Van Metre grant consisted of forty thousand acres in widely scattered plots. As one of the terms of the purchase, Joist Hite promised to "seat" forty families here in two years. In 1730 Hite came to the Valley to live, bringing sixteen families with him as settlers. Hite and his group likely crossed the Potomac River at the Pack Horse Ford, some distance above Harper's Ferry, the connecting link between the North and the Shenandoah Valley. From there he probably followed the Indian Trail south to a point known as Springdale or Bartonsville on the Opecqon River, a tributary of the Potomac. Springdale or Bartonsville was located five miles north of the present city of Winchester. Hite himself located below the present Winchester. The people who came to the valley with Hite were Germans, and a number of them were Mennonites.

New Counties

As mentioned above, Stover's settlement was made between the Massanutten range and the Blue Ridge Mountains on the South Fork of the Shenandoah River and a tributary arising in the New Market Gap known as Massanutten Creek. In terms of present-day geography this settlement was made near Luray, in Page County. Originally the Luray communmade, signed by Elizabeth and her husband Christian Stoneman and John Kauffman, children of Michael Kauffman deceased, and of age. It was agreed that Elizabeth take the upper 250 acres. She and her husband immediately sold this tract to Herman Long who added 100 acres adjoining it to the north and patented the 350 acres.

A map of 1730 shows that Christian Steinman had acquired out of the Hans Brubaker tract at what is now Maple Grove Park and built a mill. Oct. 19, 1737, he paid 50 pounds, 16 shillings, and 4 pence to the Penns at Philadelphia for Andreas Kauffman. He died in 1760 and Henry Neave acted as his administrator. His children were

1. John Steinman, eldest.
2. Elizabeth md. John Newcomer.
3. Christian.
4. Susanna md. Jacob Brubaker.
5. Mary md. Christian Hershey.
6. Jacob (who was a deaf mute from age of 7 yrs.).

Oct., 1733, a survey was made to Martin Kauffman for 230 acres but was recorded to John Kauffman Sept. 21, 1743. Beginning at a post adjoining Hans Adam Miller W. by S. 253 to a post; S. 152 along Jacob Shelly; from a black oak E. 175 along vacant land to a post; N. 30 E. 132 along tract of Jacob and Isaac Kauffman to post; N. 8 E. 89 to beginning.

In the group of farms shown is that of Hans Kneisley containing 234 acres which may have been originally occupied by Anthony Kneisley, his father. Both these Kneisleys appear on the Conestoga tax list for 1724-1725; no doubt they had arrived the year previous. Anthony Kneisley died in 1733 leaving a widow, Magdalena and children: Hans, George, Anthony; Elizabeth, wife of Andrew Kauffman (see A); Barbara, wife of Michael Miller; Christiana md. Christian Holdiman; Anna md. Jacob Jacobs; Mary md. Jacob Shelly; and Sybilla md. Joseph Galladay. The inventory does not name the daughters, excepting Barbara Miller; but mentions the sons-in-law. The daughters' names are gleaned from deeds and Bible records.

Anna Kneisley, wife of Jacob Jacobs, seems to have been the second wife of pioneer Michael Kauffman who died in the winter of 1717. No doubt the two sets of children lived in harmony with the widow, until some time after her marriage to Jacob Jacobs who does not appear on the tax list of 1727, so it is likely he came between 1727-33. Jacob Jacobs secured land for Michael Kauffman, Jr., when he was yet nineteen. He also got a tract for John Kauffman which would help to indicate more than usual interest. When the 500-acre tract of Pioneer Michael Kauffman was partitioned it went to John and Elizabeth, who md. Christian Steinman. The deed says they were the only children of Michael, and that it was gotten by the guardians of John and Elizabeth. Since these two heirs paid the full price for the land when it was patented, the part paid by the guardians must have been just enough to register it and it likely came from their mother's estate. In consequence of this it is believed the clerk who made the notation misunderstood; confusing the fact that they were the only heirs of the first wife, and of Michael as is shown.

Kauffman-Kneisley settlement between Landisville and Lancaster, Pa.

The dimensions of Michael Kauffman's 530-acre tract together with that of his son is mentioned under C. It might be mentioned that a Mennonite Church and cemetery border the right side of the highway before entering Landisville via Lancaster. Opposite this cemetery is a brick house. The date stone says it was built by Andrew Kauffman in 1830. Following this road for about a block, then turning left and proceeding west about two blocks with the Methodist Camp Meeting ground on the left and another larger cemetery on the right where is located an old log building which was built about 1742. It is now used as a dwelling.

A warrant was made to Martin Kauffman May 29, 1747, for 257½ acres beginning at Henry Musselman's corner N. 6 E. 73 perches; N. by W. 137 perches; W. 186 perches along barrens, S. 143 perches; W. 27 perches; S. 64 perches; E. 232 perches. This is the tract which subsequently passed to Michael in 1760 and later to his son Samuel. It was patented July 20, 1747.

On Oct. 29, 1733 a tract of 138 acres and 130 perches was surveyed for Michael Kauffman, beginning at a post N. 89 E. 106 perches to a post W. by S. 258 perches along Andrew Hershey to a post; S. by E. 100 along Jacob Shelly to a black oak; E. by N. 218 perches along Martin Kauffman. June 23, 1741, this was assigned from Jacob Jacobs to Michael Kauffman.

Anna Kneisele Kauffman fell asleep in the Lord June 24, 1758; aged 70 years. Her sister, Christianna Holdiman, died in August, 1758; aged 77 years; she is supposed to have been killed at the time when the Indians almost wiped out the Haldiman family. The above dates were taken from the Bible handed down from Anna Kneisele's son Michael Kauffman. She seems to be the mother of Martin, Michael, Christian, David, and Christianna who married, Nov. 25, 1739, John Casper Smith. Anna Jacobs was a resident of Lancaster Boro, Pa., in 1754 where she paid to the Patterson estate a little over a pound quit rent. Her husband Jacob Jacobs died about that time without any issue. His brother Matthias Jacobs of Frederick Co., Va., acted as administrator. He had a brother Peter Jacobs living in Roxboro Twp., Philadelphia Co., Pa.

MARTIN KAUFMAN

D—Martin Kaufman (-1749) md. Barbara (?) Stauffer. He appears in Lancaster Co., Pa., before October, 1733, since his name appears on the Penna. Archives and Land Records in Harrisburg, Pa., as having 230 acres of land surveyed. This tract is located near Landisville, Pa., and was taken over by John Kauffman (see C1) in 1744. See Penna. Patent Bk. 12A, page 516. Feb. 23, 1736, Ludowick Stone of Gerundo, Orange Co., Va., to Martin Coffman of the Province of Pennsylvania for 200 pounds and 5 shillings of current Virginia money three parcels of land situate and lying on Gerundo (Shenandoah) River in Orange Co., Va.

1758-1769-Records missing.

1769-John, Andreas and Jacob + Christian, a singleman, added and John with "O" acres next to Jacob.

1770-1772-John, Andreas, Christian, (no Jacob), John, 170 ac-oil mill. Peter Miller pays rent to John M.

1773-1775-John "old", Andreas, Christian, John (now listed as John Jr.) 170 ac-oil mill. (This John with the oil mill must be a son of Jacob.)

1777------John, Andreas, Christian, (no John Jr.), added Jacob 150 ac., Chrisitian, 80 ac. John & Jacob Jr. are inmates 1778-the two of them pay same taX.

1781------Andreas no longer on tax list.

1779------John "old", Christian "young", Christian by Graf, and John on Brubaker land.

1785-1788-Jacob & Abraham each 100 ac. (sons of John & Christina) Jacob "upper" 170 ac.-oil mill, and John, an inmate.

1789-1790-Abraham, Jacob-oil mill, Christian, Jacob.

1777------John, Christian & Abraham pay a tax for non-associators. (probably sons of John & Christina)

I don't believe the "oil-mill family" is John & Christina's. (DB)

JOHN MUSSELMAN OF SHENANDOAH COUNTY, VA.

1743-John Musselman, born 24 Feb 1743, where ???? son of ????

1767-John Musselman, md. Maria/Mary Holtaman 27 May 1767, where???? Dau/o-?

1778-John Musselman purchased land 26 May 1778, Shen. Co. Va. from Samuel & Elizabeth Beam. on the Branch of the Hawksbill(G-49) The Indenture is between Samuel Musselman of Shenandoah Co.Va., and John Musselman of(nothing given). The land is by Martin Coffman & John Hershberger 21½ acres.

1785-John Musselman on list of Alexander Hite, Shen Co. Va. "11 persons"

1786-Emanuel Rufner & John Musselman are Exors & Peter Lionburger and Martin Coffman are witnesses to Christian Groves WIll made 9 June 1786. Christian's wife is Esther and his second wife. Some researchers say she is a sister to John Musselman

23 July 1787-John & Mary purchased land from Jacob Rife and Isaac Hershberger.

20 May 1790-John Musselman, Martin Coffman, & Jacob Rinker are witnesses to John Hershberger's Will, Shen. Co. Va.

22 May 1794-the 16th child of John & Mary Musselman is born.

1820 & 1830-U.S. Census, Shen. Co. Va.-John & Mary appear to be residing with son, Christian

7 Dec 1822-Shen. Co. Va. John & Mary convey land to their 3 sons, Daniel,Christian & David.

The portion of Shen Co. Va. the Musselman's reside in becomes Page County in 1831, near Luray.

30 Aug 1831-John Musselman wrote his Will and names 14 children, but not his wife. She is probably deceased , since the 1830 U.S. Census.

23 May 1836-Page Co. Va., the will of John Musselman is proved.

The above Martin Kaufman/Coffman was known as "Whitehouse Martin", and (d-1805) son of Martin & Barbara, who came to Va. from Lancaster Co. Pa. in 1736, to what was then Augusta Co. Va. The Will did not name the children, but a deed in Hempfield Tsp. Lanc. Co. Pa.did. Inventory for Martin's estate was made by Daniel Stover, Jacob Burner & John Holdman, June 16, 1849. (from the Kauffman/Coffman Family History)

There was a Henry Musselman with property next to the Kauffman's in Lanc. Co. Pa. It seems the Coffman/Musselman relationship carried on to Virginia..

Warwick Township was on a portion of the northern border of Hempfield Township, Lanc. Co.,Pa.

Agreeable to an order of the County Court of Shenandoah County in the Year 1811 to us directed.

WE THE SUBSCRIBERS have examined the account of Henry Brumback Administrator of Marcus Grove, deceased, with the estate of the said decedent, and believe them to be correctly stated, agreeable to which there appears to be a balance of 53 pounds, Eighteen Shillings and 3¼ due the said estate as the above statement will be seen.

Given under our hands this 4th day of May 1812.

Jno. Roads

Jas. Headley

At a court held for the County of Shenandoah, on Monday, the 7th day of June 1813, this settlement of the estate of Marcus Grove, dec'd., was returned and ordered to be recorded.

LETTER RECEIVED BY JOHN GILL GROVE, LURAY, VIRGINIA

Mr. Wm. H. Dowdell of Indiana who died last September at the age of 94 wrote me December 1935 and copied an old letter from Nancy Ann Glenn of March 12, 1878 to him. She said that she was a daughter of David Grove and a grand daughter of Mark Grove who married a Roads for his first wife who had 3 boys and 1 girl. John & Martin went to Ohio, Jno. to Licking County, and Martin to Newark.

Barbara married Chrisley Bumgardner and died in this county. Children by second wife he had 9 children 4 boys and 5 girls Mary, Susan, Annie, Elysabeth, Fanny—Chrisley, Samuel, Daniel, Joseph were their names, but I can not tell where they are. They moved to Ohio some where. My mother was a Musselman daughter of Jno. Musselman. She was from Lancaster, Pa., and moved on the Hawksbill above Luray and died there. Also Dec. 28, 1877 Mrs. Glenn wrote: My name is Mrs Nancy Glenn before I was married my name was Nancy Grove. My father's name David Grove and his father's name was Mark Grove. I had but one brother his name was Henry Grove. He went to State of Indiana about 40 years ago, and I married George D. Glenn in the year 1821. He died January 5, 1862. My oldest sister was named Mary she married David Stover and moved to Ohio. My next oldest sister was Barbara, she married Moses Dowdell and moved to Indiana ——— I will be 80 years old the 10th day of July.

Respt J. W. Weaver P. M.

I have located Geo. D. Glenn's grave. It has a cast iron marker with dates on it. The above letters will give you the two sets of children. This son Christian Grove left a son Peter Grove. I know Peter's grave yard.

Peter had two sons Jos & Samuel. Jos died in Mound City, Mo. and Samuel in Tenn. also 3 daughters Polly Anna Leamer of Mo. Mary married Jno Clemen of Panels Fort, and Fanny married Nehemiah Abbott of Page Co. and left 2 sons. This Samuel has a daughter that lives in Seattle Washington. I have Dr. Brumbaughs book and know him personally. He is just a fine man. Marcus daughter Mary who married Henry Brumbach had 12 children and 5 of them married back in the Christian Grove family—two into 2nd Christian and 3 into Samuel branch. Marcus grand daughter Mary Brumback married Jno Grove who is my grand father. I have always heard that Marcus & Christian are Brothers and came from Pa. but do not know what part. Christian will speak of land in Pa., also the will mentions an unborn child that I think happened to be twin daughters as I found an estate settlement of 1844 that left thirteen shares not including a share for David who had died previous to that.

At Winchester is recorded a deed to Christian in 1756. Land on the Hawksbill (a stream) which is the first date I find. I live on a part of this land that has never been out of the Grove name

George was the oldest son of John and Mary Glenn. He became a "founder" at the Isabella Furnace on the Hawksbill and according to Tom Pierce the description was , "Founder - Responsible for pouring the molten metal, although this usually took the form of tapping the furnace and letting the molten metal flow into either the pigs or plate molds. Had to be able to judge temperature and purity of the pour. Also called foundryman." He was married to Nancy Grove (1799-1879) whose parents were David (1766-1826) and Anna Musselmann (1768-1836). She is probably in Blackford Cemetery with George.

From Glenn cousin, Joy Henning, of Marshall, AR:
Early in the research of the genealogy of John Glenn and Mary Bradley Glenn, our Glenn group was made aware of the existence of letters in the Archives of the Swem Library at the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia. The letters cover the period 1821-1858 and are an accumulation of correspondence between some of the Glenns and Bradleys and their families and some letters relating to the operation of the furnaces in the area.

Of significance to the Glenn/Bradley descendants are letters that begin on 25 March 1821 between George C. Bradley and Mary Bradley in Hamilton Twp, Adams County, PA to John and Mary Glenn at Isabella Furnace, Shenandoah County, VA. George C. Bradley is the son of Thomas Wilson Bradley and Catherine Tumler, second wife of Thomas Wilson Bradley. George Christian Bradley was a half-brother to Mary Bradley Glenn.

Perhaps the most significant letter to our family is the one written 20 May 1826, by Thomas Bradley and his wife Catherine from Pennsylvania, to his daughter, Mary Bradley Glenn, after the death of her husband, John, in Page County, Virginia. The letters have helped strengthen the assumptions about the relationships of the Glenn/Bradley family. They also have given a small glimpse of what life was like in Pennsylvania and Virginia in the 1820's. The discovery of the letters has enabled the Glenn/Bradley family researchers to add a personal side to the otherwise sterile names in our tree about whom so very little is known. Finding the Glenn Papers was an unexpected gift to our Glenn and Bradley cousins.

Lot #23 in Town of Luray. When John Glenn died in 1825 his will stated that he left his lot of ground in the town of Luray to his son, George D. Glenn. In 1840 George D. Glenn sold this land to a free black man, Joe Seddon. Deed Book D, p. 167 Indenture 24 May 1840 between George D. Glenn and Nancy his wife of the county of Page, State of Virginia of the one part and Joe Seddon (a free black) of the county and state aforesaid of the other part. Lot sold for $100. It is described as a lot or parcel of land in the Town of Luray known as lot No 23 in the plan of the same town and adjoining the lots of Daniel (or David) Flinnor Glenn and Jacob Bell. The history of the “First and Second Map of the Town of Luray as surveyed in 1812 and 1818” states that Lot 23 is where the Main Street Baptist Church now stands. It states that it was purchased in 1818 for the sum of $66.00 by William Web. The first church was built there between 1864 and 1865. There is no mention of John Glenn or Joe Seddon ever owning the lot. I believe that this deed proves that John Glenn did own the land and passed it on to his son George D. Glenn, who later sold it to Joe Seddon.

MRS SUSANNA OWENS

Daughter of Mr and Mrs Benjimen Musselman was born in Fairfield County Ohio, May 19 9, 1827; and died at the home of her only son Thomas Stevenson, 8-4-1928 at the ripe old age of One hundred one years, two months, and fifteen days.

When she was eight years of age her parents moved from Ohio to Wabash Indiana making this journey in ox cart. Here they lived in a log cabin among the Indians who were quite numerous as their neighbors. Her father Benjimen Musselman was a doldier in the war of 1812.

She with her first husband Jacob Stevenson came to La Grange Co about 1868, to this union seven children were born, all preceeding her in death but Thomas Stevens. There are nine grand children, fifteen great grand children, and six great great grand children.

Following the death of her second husband Mr Ryason she married Mr. Isaac Owens who preceeded her in death about twelve years ago. During her earlier life she was a member of the Baptist Church.

Mrs Owens was very active about the home during her later years, taking an interest in the affairs and duties of the house. On the day that she lived she was moving about the home.

On her One Hundredth Annaversary her relatives and friends celebrated with her, this occasion being a very plesent event in her life, of which she often spoke.

This ripe old age of Mrs Owens is an unusual event in life, and to think that she could spend her latter days with her own son. God is very gracious.

The family wishes to thank the neighbors and friends for their sympathy, kindness, and the their expression of service.

Mrs. Suzanne Owen, Nearing Century Mark, Recalls Days of Early Pioneers In Indiana

Seated on the front porch of her son's home on Dutch street south of Wolcottville, a stone's throw from the state highway along which motor cars whizzed monotonously while overhead the afternoon mail plane droned off into the west, Mrs. Suzanne Owen, who has lived through ninety-nine years, from the day of the ox cart to the day of victory over the air, recalled some of the rigors of her youth among the pioneers of Indiana.

Mrs. Owen, who quietly celebrated her ninety-ninth birthday on Wednesday of last week, came with her parents to Indiana from Fairfield county, Ohio, her birthplace, at the age of eight years.

Four generations: Mrs. Owen, her son, Thomas Stevenson, his daughter, Mrs. Bidwell, and her daughter, Marcella.

Into the wilderness they came, by wagon and ox team, clearing the timber and brush away for a log cabin home in Wabash county, near where the town of Roann is now.

During the first three months they saw no white faces save their own, but their neighbors were Indians, not savage, but nevertheless to be watched.

The little town and trading post of Wabash, on the banks of its beautiful river, was their nearest community, and to secure such finished products as were manufactured in the more civilized east, it was necessary to travel across country, by ox team, a week's journey, to Michigan City, then a thriving lake port.

Now, less than half a day by state road twenty-seven to Goshen, and thence to Michigan City, is only required by the ubiquitous "flivver."

Mr. Owen's father was a Musselman, born in Virginia, a soldier in the American army in the war of 1812, a pioneer in Indiana. Her mother was born in Germany. Her father followed the miller's trade, and found a ready market for his flours in the new state.

She came to LaGrange county with her husband, Jacob Stevenson, and son, Francis, about 1868, two years before a locomotive and a string of flat cars made the first trip into LaGrange from Sturgis in 1870. To the couple were born seven children, Francis M., of LaGrange, Elrado, who left LaGrange one day and was never heard of again, Thomas, at whose home in Wolcottville she now lives, Mrs. Samuel Long, Mrs. Sarah Barnes, and Amelia, who died when a child.

Her second husband was John Rynerson, and after his death she became the wife of Isaac Owen, who died about ten or twelve years ago.

Spry and active yet, while she nears the century mark, Mrs. Owen, though her memory is forgivably vague at times, makes frequent comparisons between early days in Indiana and the present. She takes a keen interest in the affairs of today, in the wonderful mechanical and electrical progress of this age into which she has lived, and seems not particularly amazed or alarmed at things as they are.

For many years she enjoyed the visits of her friends in LaGrange at her home on South Popular street, but four years ago she moved to Wolcottville to her son's home.

Should [illegible] family reunion, Mrs. Owen [illegible] call to her side two sons, two daughters, nine grandchildren, and seventeen great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Owen, through the Standard, wishes to express her thanks for the greeting cards and remembrances from her friends throughout the county, wishing her many more years of happy life.

LaGrange Standard, LaGrange Co. Ind. [redacted] 1927

Mrs. Suzanne Owen quietly celebrated her one hundredth birthday on Thursday, May 19th, at the home of her son, Thomas Stevenson, south of Wolcottville.

Mrs. Owen was born in Fairfield County, Ohio, and came to Indiana with her parents at the age of eight years, settling in Wabash County. She very vividly recalls and recounts their experiences in coming into the wilderness by wagon and ox team, clearing the timber and brush away for a log cabin, near where the town of Roann is now located. Their only neighbors were Indians, not savage, but treacherous to some extent, and to be watched.

Wabash, then only a trading post, on the beautiful Wabash river, was the nearest community, but, in order to secure such finished products as were manufactured in the more civilized East, it was necessary to travel across country by ox team, a week's journey to Michigan City, a thriving lake port. With our modern modes of travel, less than half a day is required between these points.

Mrs. Owen's father was Benjamin Musselman, born in Virginia, who fought with the American army in the war of 1812 and pioneered in Indiana. Her mother, Susanah Walters, was born in Germany.

Mrs. Owen came to LaGrange County with her husband, Jacob Stevenson, and son, Francis, about 1868. Just two years later the first locomotive and a string of flat cars made its entry into LaGrange from Sturgis.

To the couple were born seven children, Francis M., of LaGrange, Elrado, who left LaGrange one day and was never heard of again, Thomas, at whose home she now celebrates her one hundredth birthday, Mrs. Samuel Long, Mrs. Sarah Barnes, and Amelia, who died when a child. There are also nine grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren.

Her second husband was John Rynerson, and after his death she became the wife of Isaac Owen, who died about ten or twelve years ago.

Mrs. Owen is still active and extremely alert, is greatly interested in the affairs of to-day, in the mechanical and electrical developments, all within this age into which she has lived, and seems not particularly amazed over some of the most recent accomplishments of this great country.

Benjamin Musselman, a brother, celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday January 19th.

Mrs. Owen, through the Standard, wishes to express her thanks for the greeting cards and remembrances from all her relatives and friends wishing her many more years of happy life.

PETER - JOSEPH - JOSEPH II

NAME - JOSEPH RUFFNER II GENERATION - 3rd
BORN - 14 February 1769 in Shenandoah Valley, Va.
DIED - 10 May 1837 in Cincinnati. Burial Spring Grove Cemetery.
PARENTS - Joseph Ruffner and Ann Heistand
MARRIED - MARGARET ----
BORN - 1768 in Virginia
DIED - 24 November 1862 in Cincinnati at age 94. Burial Spring Grove.

JOSEPH II moved to Ohio about 1811, invested in city lots, lived in a stone house in what is now downtown Cincinnati. He was a Judge, had the military title of Major. Cincinnati's 1817 census lists his household as he and his wife, 2 males 21 or over, 2 between 12 and 21, 1 under 12, 1 female 21 or over, 1 between 12 and 21, 2 under 12, yet we find names of but two daughters made trustees for their mother after his death. Three trips to Cincinnati and a thorough search of library and courthouse records reveals nothing else.

CHILDREN
1. ELIZA - 1809 in Virginia. Married Joseph Haskins.
2. MARTHA JANE - 1813 in Ohio.

PETER - JOSEPH - TOBIAS - SILAS

6 NAME - SILAS RUFFNER GENERATION - 4th
BORN - 22 January 1807
DIED - 25 June 1871
PARENTS - Tobias Ruffner and Mary Muzzleman
MARRIED - ELIZA HYDASSA MOREHEAD of Rockbridge County, Virginia
BORN -
DIED - 25 July 1865

SILAS owned a part of his Uncle Daniel's farm, and the old homestead, a beautiful colonial home which was still standing in 1955, a few door below the Governor's Mansion on Kanawha Boulevard in Charleston. It was then a showplace and in excellent repair, but no longer in the Ruffner family. There were no children.

PETER - JOSEPH - SAMUEL

NAME - SAMUEL RUFFNER GENERATION - 3rd
BORN - 26 October 1773 in Shenandoah Valley, Virginia
PARENTS - Joseph Ruffner and Ann Heistand
MARRIED - CATHERINE DAGES about 1800

SAMUEL and his family moved from Kanawha County, Virgina to Ohio about 1820. All his children were born in Kanawha County. This information about Samuel, with the names of his children, came to us in a letter written in August 1938 by Mrs Theo Gyllinskog, Smithfield, Utah - apparently one of his descendants.

CHILDREN
1. ESTHER - born about 1802. Married WILLIAM WILLIAMS about 1819.
2. ANGUS DAGES
3. ELIAS
4. JOSEPH

PETER - JOSEPH - SAMUEL - JOSEPH

NAME - JOSEPH RUFFNER GENERATION - 4th
BORN - 1808 in Kanawha County, Virginia
DIED -
PARENTS - Samuel Ruffner and Catherine Dages
MARRIED - MARGARET LOWKS 18 September 1831
BORN -
DIED -

Twenty-eight years after Mrs Gyllinskog's letter, we discovered that Samuel and his family had apparently moved to Gallia County, Ohio when they left Virginia. Record of both Joseph and his brother was found in the 1850 and 1870 federal censuses for Gallia Co. Undoubtedly Joseph had other children, we have but one name. Joseph was a miner.

MARRIED - WILLIAM W. COLWELL 12 October 1853
BORN -
DIED -

CHILDREN
1. SOPHIA - 1854
2. ELIAS - 1857

NOTE - WILLIAM RUFFNER who married MARGARET CAMPBELL on the 21st of June 1853 in Gallia County, Ohio, and MARY RUFFNER who married JESSE KELLY on February 1865 in Gallia County, were undoubtedly children of either Joseph or Angus.

PETER - JOSEPH - EVE

NAME - EVE (RUFFNER) WOOD
GENERATION - 3rd
BORN - 29 September 1777 in Virginia
DIED - 29 January 1821 in Gallia County, Ohio
PARENTS - Joseph Ruffner and Ann Heistand
MARRIED - NEHEMIAH WOOD Jr of Page County, Virginia
BORN - 1770 in Shenandoah Valley, Virginia
DIED - 21 September 1824 in Gallia County, Ohio
PARENTS - Nehemiah Wood

NEHEMIAH married Eve in Kanawha County, Virginia, from which county he served as a member of the Virginia Legislature. He and his family moved to Gallia County, Ohio in 1805, settling in Raccoon Township. He is said to have owned some 1,500 acres of land. Some 900 acres of his holdings lay along what is now Rt #35, just south of the town of Rio Grande and this tract is now the property of Bob Evans, of sausage making fame. There is a lovely brick house built about 1825, probably started by Nehemiah and finished by his sons after his death in 1824. Mr Evans and his family live in the house which has been added to, but retaining much of it's colonial charm - the original fireplace and cooking cranes, hand carved cherry woodwork and staircase, the upstairs red pine flooring with square-headed forged nails. The bricks for the home were fired in a kiln on the farm. As late as 1862, with the property owned by Nehemiah's son Harrison, "The Old Homestead" or the "Wood House", served as a stagecoach stop. An Inn License (8th class - cost $5.00) still hangs over the old fireplace in the dining room.

The first postoffice in the township was at Wood's Mills, the present site of Adamsville, and Nehemiah was its first postmaster. He and Eve were the parents of 8 sons. Eve died in January of 1821 and is buried high on a hill of the farm in a most interesting cemetery, now known as the Watson Cemetery. It is all but inaccessible - the approach very rough and steep - fit only for a horse, or on foot, possibly by jeep. Since Eve died in January it made the writer wonder how her body was taken to the cemetery - carried by her sons, possibly by a rude sled, or farm wagon. Her grave, and possibly another dozen or so, is surrounded by a fairly tall "picket type" iron fence, most discouraging to climb over it, but the writer made it at the risk of limb! There is no gate of any kind, nor any evidence that there ever was one. Quite a few graves are on the outside of this plot. Besides the stone for Eve, there were stones for two of her grandaughters. While there is no stone for Nehemiah, it is generally agreed that it is also his last resting place. Mrs Mary Lewis, who is in charge of the Heritage Room at the Rio Grande College Library, has in her possession a receipt for stones for Nehemiah and Eve, bought by their sons. On August 7, 1821 married again, his bride M. June Daughterty, by whom he had two small daughters. Nehemiah did not leave a will, but we were privileged to inspect the Gallia County official records of the settling of his extensive estate. From these records we were able to get the names and ages of his minor sons.

CHILDREN
1. NOAH - 2 August 1800
2. HARRISON - 1802
3. WILLIAM M. - 1804
4. CHARLES C. 1807
5. JOSEPH - 1809
6. LUTHER DAVID - 1811
7. JAMES PERRY - 1813
8. LEWIS N. - 1818

In addition to the postmastership and his farm, Nehemiah operated a saw mill, grist mill, carding and fulling mill.

Alfred Pruddon vs William Martin & William Van Cleaf

Proceedings in Chancery before the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County & State of Ohio on the twenty sixth day of August Anno Domini Eighteen hundred & forty seven, in a certain cause wherein Alfred Pruddon is Complainant vs William Martin & William Van Cleaf are Defendants: Be it remembered, that on the sixth day of May Anno Domini Eighteen hundred & forty six, the Complainant filed his Bill in Chancery closed in words & figures following viz: "To the Hon Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for Montgomery County in Chancery sitting: Alfred Pruddon of the County of Montgomery & State of Ohio represents, that William Martin whose residence is not known (and whom your orator prays may be made defendant to this Bill), being or pretending to be seized in fee simple of a certain lot of ground situate in said County aforesaid and described as follows, being all of that certain parcel of land known as fifty feet in width in front & running back the depth of said lot off the north side of lot No 12 in Alfred Pruddens plat of the subdivision of the west half of out lot No 35 east of and adjoining the Town of Dayton the revised number of said lot No 12 being 1795. and the said William Martin being in want of one hundred dollars, he did in or about the Month of November Eighteen hundred and forty two apply to one William Van Cleaf of said County to lend him the said sum of one hundred dollars to be secured by a Mortgage upon said premises that said William Van Cleaf did loan to the said William Martin the sum of one hundred dollars & thereupon the said William Martin, to secure the repayment of the same with lawful interest by his deed duly executed and dated on or about the eighth day of November Eighteen hundred & forty two conveyed the same premises to said William Van Cleaf in fee simple; but subject nevertheless to a condition of defeasance on the payment of the said sum of one hundred dollars with lawful interest according to the tenor & effect of three promissory notes for the sum of thirty three dollars & thirty three and one third cents each, due in Ten, Twenty & thirty months from date which notes are herewith filed together with the original deed of Mortgage as part of this Bill & which Complainant refers. Your Orator further represents, that on the twelfth day of November Eighteen hundred & forty two, the said William Van Cleaf (whom your Orator prays may be made Defendant to this Bill) duly assigned said Mortgage and notes in writing thereon to your Orator, for a valuable consideration to him in hand paid by your Orator. And your Orator further represents, that neither the said sum of one hundred dollars nor any part thereof was paid to your Orator by either the said Martin or Van Cleaf at the time limited in that behalf whereby the legal estate in said premises became vested in your Orator redeemable nevertheless in equity on payment of the principal and interest due & to become due thereon. The said sum of one hundred principal & a large arrear of interest thereon being due he applied to the said William Martin & requested him to pay the same to your Orator, which he has hitherto wholly neglected and refused to do. Your petitioner therefore prays, that the writ of Subpoena may issue against the said William Van Cleaf and that an order for publication of notice of the pendency of this suit will be granted as to William Martin whose residence is unknown to Complainant: And that the defendants may be compelled to answer all and singular the premises, that an account may be taken of what is due to your Orator for his principal & interest upon said Mortgage, that said Mortgaged premises may be sold & the proceeds thereof applied to the satisfaction of said principal and interest and that your Orator

John Musselman, Sr., the subject of this sketch, one of the prominent and representative pioneer citizens of Paulding county, is a native of Virginia; was born in Shenandoah county, that state, May 30, 1803. He is the son of David and Susanna (Hershberger) Musselman, both Virginians. Our subject is the eldest of the following children born to these parents : John, Samuel and Isaac, who are dead; Annie, of Covington; Susan, Elizabeth, Becca and Mary, the last four deceased.

John Musselman was a tanner by trade and was also a boot and shoe merchant for several years. He formerly practiced medicine for about twenty years and finally retired to his farm. He at his death, which occurred recently at an advanced age, owned a splendid farm of 160 acres, upon which he spent the evening of a long eventful and useful life in peace and repose.

He in early life was a Democrat, but afterwards joined the forces of that honorable citizenship, the independent voter and placed man above party. He was county commissioner one term and justice of the peace five terms. He purchased farm in the early day of 1833.

March 29. 1832, he was united in marriage with Miss Eliza, daughter of David Clemmer, a Virginian, and early pioneer. To them were born John, Jr., Amos, Diana, Cyrus, Jane, William, Mary, Eliza, Minerva, Ira, Ida and David. Mrs. Musselman died September 19, 1880, and June 29, 1882, Mr. Musselman married Clarissa (Richards) Lacy, widow of Elmer Lacy.

Mr. Musselman was one of our earliest and most prominent pioneers. He lived a life. of usefulness and his influence on his community was a power for good.

ALLEN BYBEE.

The subject of this sketch, Mr. Bybee, the popular and efficient auditor of Paulding county, has just been flatteringly indorsed by the people of the county and his tenure of office extended another term. Mr. Bybee, since coming to Paulding county, has grown in popularity every year as regularly as the years go by. Nobody as far as we know have any adverse criticism either upon his character or his official acts. He is a believer in the people and the people are believers in him. The accompanying cut not only explains his business previous to his official life, but also is evidence of his enterprise and unique business methods. In business Mr. Bybee has been successful, eminently successful. The popularity of the man and the popularity of his goods both had a harmonious, steady growth. If we were asked the elements in his character that give base to his popularity, we would say first that he is as true as steel and will go to the limit with alacrity to rescue a friend in financial distress. He scorns business mehtods only in the face of a deserving appeal for an accommodation. The names of those he has befriended is legion, and he will be invincible just as long as the hearts of the citizens of the county have a spark of gratitude in them. Here is a flat contradiction of the theory that to be successful politically one must be vacillating and false in character. Would we had enough such characters in public life to purge our body politic of this and the result was they all got so beastly drunk and made things generally so lively for the white settlers that during the night at about 8 o'clock, they started down the river to Defiance. The attempt to go away in the night was a very difficult one. The whole country was a swamp and the horses were frequently knee-deep in mud and water. A part of the way her father was obliged to go ahead of the team on his hands and knees in order to keep the path. The family following as best they could in the dark, guided by his voice. They reached Fort Defiance about 2 o'clock in the morning, and the next day her father with others returned to Delaware and brought their household goods. They then settled on the bottom land just opposite the Bouton farm on the Auglaize River, where they remained three years. Mrs. Hill says she can yet well remember the many privations they underwent the first year, which were such as few of to-day ever think of. Corn bread was the staple product for food. Flour could only be obtained at Perrysburg or Fort Wayne. After the first year, however, traders opened up here at Defiance, and the family frequently indulged in such luxuries as apple pie made with wild crab apples and pumpkins. Salt was very scarce and cost $11 and upward a barrel. Like all old settlers, they had their corn mills, made of two circular stones having parallel bases, about three feet in diameter, the lower one being stationary, with a bevel projecting over the upper surface into which the upper stone fits. This upper stone had an orifice into which they dropped the corn five or six grains at a time with one hand and with the other turned the stone. On one side was an outlet and from this the corn came forth in the shape of pretty coarse meal. This meal was then sifted and the finest used for bread, while the remainder was boiled and made into what they called samp. During the year 1821–22, Mrs. Hill lived with the Prestons, who at that time occupied the old fort, using the block-housea for storing grain. Preston kept tavern in a log house near the tort. His only guests were those who came as prospectors and those who were looking for future homes. The block-houses were in excellent condition at that time. They were built of logs, the lower story being carried up about eight feet. Then the logs for the second story were allowed to project over about two feet. The floor of the projection was pierced with numerous holes for the purpose of allowing those inside to shoot down upon the enemy as they came up or down the river. In fact, the fort and its surrounding houses were then just as Gen. Wayne had left them. Many of our citizens remember the bodies that were found at or near the site of the present residence of Mr. Myers, on Front street, and also the skull now in the possession of Dr. Downs, the latter remarkable for its wonderful preservation of hair. Mrs. Hill says the ground just there was long used as a French burial place, and she remembers distinctly of persons being buried there and that at the head of some of the graves were large wooden crosses. While she was at the fort, the graves were very distinct. In this place her parents buried their first dead. She also remembers the burial of a little girl of John Driver's. Mrs. Hill says in 1821 Timothy L. Smith was elected the first Justice of the Peace, and she thinks Arthur Burras was the first Constable of Defiance Township. When they came here in that year, 1821, there were but twelve families living between Perrysburg and Fort Wayne. The first above Perrysburg was the family of Moses Rice. Next, John Perkins and Montgomery Evans; still farther up, John Hively lived on the Kepler farm. Near the famous old apple tree on Mr. Southworth's place, lived T. S. Smith; just above Smith Burras located and started the first blacksmith shop in Defiance. William Preston lived at the fort and kept tavern. Robert Shirley lived still further up above the fort, while on the Auglaize, lived Mrs. Hill's family, John and Thomas Driver and James Hinton.

Mrs. Elizabeth Speaker was born May 9, 1817, in Lewis County, Ky., and came to Defiance County, Ohio, and settled in Delaware Township, with family of James Shirley, in 1839, in what was known as the "Bend," on the Maumee River. The persons arriving previous were Tobias Mulligan and father, Montgomery Evans and sons. Mr. Shirley improved his farm in the "bend." Elizabeth, married James Shirley, in June, 1839. He lived thirteen years and died in 1852. She then married Charles Speaker June 10, 1853. He died December 16, 1872. His estate caused much litigation. The children were—William, Robert, Eliza, Alexander, Louisa, Sylvester, Elizabeth, Emma and Frank, by her last husband. Four children are living, one by the first husband and three by the last husband. The family records are lost. The first settlers were George W. Hill, James Shirley, G. Lumbard, G. Blair and others.

John Musselman was born May 30, 1803, in Shenandoah County, Va., and immigrated to Montgomery County, Ohio, where he remained five years and married Miss Eliza Clemmer, in January, 1832, and came to Paulding County, Ohio, in 1834, now Delaware Township, Defiance County, on the banks of the Maumee, where he now resides. The township was then covered by a heavy forest and much wet land, so much so that it was settled only along the river. At that time it was known as Williams County. In 1843, Mr. Musselman put up a small tannery, where he tanned all kinds of leather. The yard is now useless, and much like himself. John Cummings, who came in Wayne's expedition in 1794, lived with and died at Mr. M.'s. George Platter, George Platter, Sr., George Platter, Jr., and Joseph Miller were early settlers. They settled mostly along the river. It was supposed that the settlements would be only along the river, and that nothing would grow but grass, where now good wheat is produced. Tile drainage is now much used and is redeeming the land. Mr. M. acted as Justice of the Peace for Delaware Township for about nine years when in Williams County, and was Commissioner of Paulding County. Understanding the diseases of the country, though not having been a graduate, he was often employed to treat the sick among his neighbors, which was done quite successfully. He often met the eccentric "Johnny Appleseed," who frequently passed up the Maumee planting nurseries of apple-seeds. He planted seeds on different farms along the river. Mr. M. has some trees on his farm planted by "Johnny" at that time, grown from seed planted by him, that have fine fruit. His last appearance was about 1845, when he went to Fort Wayne. Mrs. M. died September 18, 1880, aged about sixty-six years. She was the mother of fourteen children, twelve living; these were named David, Amos, Diana, John, Mary, Cyrus, Eliza, Jane, Minerva, William, Ira and Ida, all married. Amos was in the army in 1861-65. Martha died July 25, 1840, Letitia, died August 17, 1846.

George Kintner was born November 30, 1822, in Columbiana County, Ohio; removed to Crawford County with his parents in 1831, and came to Delaware Township in 1851. He married Miss Susannah Hockert, July 4, 1847, in Crawford County. Their family consists of Rebecca A., Catharine Anne, Jonas, Lovina, Lewis and George A. These all survive but Jonas, George A. and Samuel, who died young. When Mr. K. first arrived, his neighbors were James Gordon, Jonathan Peffly, Peter Blair, Frederick Slough, Peter Krughton, Nicholas Huffborn, C. B. Mulligan and Montgomery Evans. The old orchard, he thinks, was planted by M. Evans, from seed obtained of Johnny Appleseed. There was plenty of game at the time of his arrival.

Mr. E. B. Smith was born May 9, 1837, in Crawford County, Ohio, and came to Defiance County in 1850. He married Miss Rebecca A. Shoe, of Clermont County, Ohio. His family are Elizabeth, Louella, Charles, Isaac, Oscar, Lucia U. (died when three months old). He purchased and built at Delaware Bend in 1847. Mr. S. says his orchard was set out in 1830, by Mr. Snook, on the edge of the bottom. The apple trees planted by Montgomery Evans, and James Shirley were planted about the same time.

Catharine Lewis was born July 19, 1812, in Muskingum County, near Zanesville, immigrated to Defiance County when about nineteen years of age, June 1, 1831, with her husband, James Lewis, and stayed in Defiance one year; then went to Huron County and remained there about two years and returned to Defiance and settled in Delaware Township about 1850, where Mr. Lewis died August 8, 1854. His children were Ellen Maria, James B. and William, who died young. The settlers were few, John Mothersbaugh, William Ronch, George Ronch, Virgil Moats, Henry Funk, John Kinsley and Daniel Swinehart, "The first man that settled on Mud Creek," Elliott Cosgrove, Daniel English and Harry McFeeters. When Mr. L. came to Defiance, there was a log church used by the Methodists. It stood where the Methodist Episcopal Church now stands. The Indians often got into the old log church to stay, and got out the next morning with bloody noses and much bruised from fighting, the result of bad "fire-water." Two Indians named Cepenash and Segatehena, fought and pulled rings from their ears and made a bloody time of it in the church. She has often seen the chief, Oquonoxa, who resided where Charloe now stands. Milling was done at Brunersburg, some four miles away. People came some forty miles to it down the Maumee River in pirogues. She remembers "Johnny Appleseed," Jonathan Evans, Foreman Evans, Pierce Evans, John Evans, the only doctor in the country, David Hull, Mr. Wasson and his nephew William Simmons, Mr. Preston, Mr. Gardenshire, Mr. Hateley, John Oliver and son David. There were then about twenty houses in Defiance, mostly log.

Charles Smith was born in York County, Penn., April 24, 1809, and attended school and grew up in that county and married Miss Susannah Crowl, of the same county, September 8, 1833; continued to live there until 1837, and then removed to Licking County, Ohio, Harrison Township, remaining there until 1857, when he came to and settled in Delaware Township, Defiance County. He settled on Section 10, in Delaware Township, where he now lives. Had to foot it some distance on logs along the path to his land, to keep out of the water. The timber was quite large and very heavy, and ponds were plenty and nearly covered the surface of the ground. The land is now well drained and makes good farms, and is easy to cultivate. His children are Lydia A., William H., Lucinda, and Francis M., all living and grown and married and have families. Both boys, Francis M. and William H., were in the war of 1861-65. Jacob Smith, an uncle, was in the war of 1812. Mr.

John Musselman, Sr., is a native of the Old Dominion and was born in the county of Shenandoah May 30, 1803, the son of David and Susanna (Hershberger) Musselman, both of Virginia. Our subject is the eldest of the following children born to these parents: John; Samuel and Isaac, who are dead; Annie, who resides in Covington; Susan, Elizabeth, Rebecca and Mary, the last four being deceased. John Musselman was a tanner by trade, and followed the boot and shoe business for several years. He formerly practiced medicine for twenty years or more, and at last settled on a farm. He now owns 160 acres of fine land, and at the age of eighty-eight years is nearing the close of a long and successful life. In former years he was a believer in the principles of the democratic party, but of late years he has voted as best suited him. He has been county commissioner for one term and justice of the peace for five terms. He purchased the place where he now resides in 1833, and one year later he settled upon the land and has always lived there. March 29, 1832, he married Miss Eliza, the daughter of David Clemmer, of Virginia, and these children were the fruit of this union: They are John, Jr., Amos, Diana, Cyrus, Jane, William, Mary, Eliza, Minerva, Ira, Ida, now in California, and David. After many years of married life, the mother died September 19, 1880, and June 29, 1882, Mr. Musselman married Clarissa Richards Lacy, the widow of Elmer Lacy, who died in 1876. When Mr. Musselman took possession of his land there were no buildings on it and it lay in the wilderness. He is thoroughly acquainted with all the vicissitudes and perils of pioneer life, and deserves the more honor for the success which he has achieved from a humble beginning.

John Musselman, Jr., a prosperous farmer and stockraiser, was born in Paulding county, March 11, 1837, the son of John and Eliza (Clemmer) Musselman, a notice of whom appears elsewhere in this work. John Musselman remained with his parents until his twenty-sixth year and then married, on the 5th of March, 1863, Rebecca, the daughter of Jesse and Sarah J. (Hughes) Hughes. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Musselman located upon the farm where they now reside. These children were born to them: Nathan, who died in 1865; Emanuel, died July 4, 1888; John M., David, Martha, Minerva, Clement and Aden, twins. Mr. Musselman has succeeded by hard work and careful financiering in accumulating 300 acres of fine land of which 140 are under cultivation. Politically he is a democrat, fraternally a member of the P. of I., and religiously he and his wife are Free Thinkers.

John M. Musselman.—Among the representative young farmers of Paulding county may be mentioned John M. Musselman, who first saw the light in Emerald township, October 13, 1868, the son of John Musselman, Jr. He received a common school education and then engaged in the pursuit of farming. He purchased eighty acres of good land in Emerald township and is engaged in clearing the same. March 30, 1890, Mr. Musselman led to the altar Miss Onah D. Starkey and they reside on their farm. They have one child, Nina E. Musselman, born June 18, 1891. In religion, they term themselves Free Thinkers, and politically Mr. Musselman is a supporter of the democratic party. He is a leading citizen of his township, and highly respected.

Obituary Rebecca Musselman.

20 Feb 1919

Rebecca (Hughes) Musselman, daughter of Jesse and Sarah Jane Hughes, was born in Jackson county, West Virginia, near Gallipolis, Ohio, Nov. 13th, 1842, departed this life Feb. 11, 1919, aged 76 years, 3 months and 28 days. When nine years of age the family moved from West Virginia by boat to Cincinnati, Ohio, then by canal boat to Defiance, thence to their home in Paulding county, where she resided until called to a higher life.

She was united in marriage to John Musselman March 5th, 1863. To this union were born eight children: Nathaniel, Emanuel, John M., David, Martha; Minerva, wife of Frank B. Wortman; Clement and Adin. The husband and two sons having preceded her to the Spirit World, the husband nearly ten years ago, Nathan in infancy and Emanuel at the age of 21 years. By her passing there remains to cherish her memory, four sons, two daughters, seventeen grandchildren, five great grandchildren, one brother, two sisters, besides many other relatives and friends.

She was a kind and loving wife and mother, devoted to home and its surroundings; the poor and needy seldom passed her door unrewarded. In sickness and misfortune her ministrations were bountiful and freely given.

"She lives!—in all the past
She lives; nor, to the last,
Of seeing her again will we despair;
In dreams we see her now;
And on her angel brow
We see it written, "Thou shalt meet me there."

Yes, we all live to God,
Father, Thy chastening rod
So help us, thine afflicted ones, to bear,
That in the spirit land,
Meeting at Thy right hand,
'Twill be our heaven to find that she is there!

A choir from Sherwood composed of Mrs. Mate Lindersmith, Mrs. Pauline Noffsinger, Messrs. Roscoe Rhoades and Walter Miller, with Mrs. Lyrl Lehman as pianist, did the singing at the funeral, held Friday afternoon, Feb. 14, at the residence of Clement Musselman, and F. D. Dunakin officiated. She was buried at the Rochester cemetery, near Cecil.

Last Wednesday evening the remains of Mrs. Rebecca Musselman were brought home. She had passed away at Toledo Tuesday, Feb. 1st. She was taken to the home of her son Clement, where the funeral services were held on Friday afternoon, conducted by F. D. Dunakin, of Sherwood. Interment in Rochester cemetery. 20 Feb 1919 68.41.3

WILLIAM MUSSELMAN

19 Oct 1911

Prominent Citizen of Emerald Township, Claimed by Death.

One of Emerald township's best known and most highly respected citizens, in the person of William Musselman, was called from earth to his long home beyond the tomb, last Thursday evening, Oct 12th, about 7 o'clock, after an illness of several months duration.

The funeral was held at his home Sunday afternoon at 1:30, officiated at by Rev. D. F. Helms, of the Paulding Methodist church. Interment in the Rochester cemetery, of Crane township. Paulding Lodge Knights of Pythias, of which he was a member, attended and participated in the funeral rites.

The following personal sketch of the deceased is taken from the Hardesty volume of representative citizens of Paulding county:

"The Musselman family have been prominently identified with the political and business affairs of the county so long that they justly deserve to be classed among the representative citizens of Paulding county. William Musselman was born in Emerald township, March 9, 1853, and is the son of John and Eliza Musselman, both of Virginia. He grew to manhood upon his father's pioneer farm, and was educated in the public schools at Bryan, Ohio. He knows thoroughly the early pioneers' experiences of the county. September 24, 1878, he was united in marriage with Miss Ada Simpson, daughter of E. W. and Amelia Simpson. To Mr. and Mrs. Musselman were born Stella M., wife of Edgar Lucas; Maude B. and Belle I., and infant, deceased.

Mr. Musselman is one of the successful men of the county. He first bought 160 acres and commenced in the woods. He now owns 240 acres, 200 of which is cleared, upon which he has erected what are among the best farm buildings in the county. He is in politics a Democrat, and has been township trustee seven years, and is serving his fourth term as justice of the peace. He is a member of the K. of P. Lodge at Cecil, Ohio. As a Democrat he believes in the true principles of his party, and stands for honest politics rather than trickery and bossism. He is a man of sterling integrity, and could serve his party with honor in any capacity."

Obituary.

By Edgar Lucas (Son-in-law).

Mrs. Ada Musselman, nee Simpson, was born January 21st, 1856. Departed this life December 1st, 1919, aged 63 years, 10 months and 10 days.

Was united in marriage with William Musselman Setpember 24, 1878. To Mr. and Mrs. Musselman were born Stella M., wife of Mr. Edgar Lucas, Maude B., wife of Mr. Forest Munger, Belle I., wife of Mr. Clarence Jackson, and an infant son (deceased.)

She leaves to mourn her departure three daughters, eleven grandchildren, one sister (Mrs. Belle Travis), one brother (Mr. Wm. Simpson) and many other relatives, neighbors and friends.

She has lived all her life in this community and has left a worthy impression upon it that will be most lasting. She was an active member of the Six-Mile Christian Church and had an abiding faith that somehow, someway,

Not one soul shall be destroyed,
Nor cast as rubbish to the void
When God hath made His works complete.

Mrs. Musselman was a provident, faithful mother and the remaining members of the family keenly feel the loss of their best friend.

She had a cheerful, sunny disposition, although her joys were clouded at times with sickness,

But—

The clouds only cover the sunshine,
They cannot banish the sun;
And the Earth shines out the brighter
When the dreary rain is done.
We must stand in the deepest shadow
To see the clearest light;
And often from wrong's own darkness
Comes the very strength of right.
The sweetest rest is at evening
After a wearisome day,
When the heavy burden of labor
Has been borne from our hearts away;
And those that have never known sorrow
Can not know the infinite peace
That falls on the troubled spirit
When it sees, at last release.

The funeral was held Thursday, Dec. 4, at her residence, conducted by Rev. E. S. Keller, pastor of the Paulding Methodist church. Interment at Cecil cemetery.

which they have added until their farm contains two hundred and sixty acres of Paulding county's best black loam, thoroughly improved upon which they have erected splendid residence buildings. His granaries are full of grain, his farm well stocked and he is free from debt. He is a grower of thoroughbred short horn cattle, his herd ranking with any in the county. He is also an extensive hog grower, shipping usually two car loads a year of his own raising. Mr. Crone is in politics a Republican and gives much attention to his party's success, and has been strongly urged to go on his party's county ticket. His great business ability would enable him to render our county great service as one of her officials. If Mr. Crone's success is as proportionately great in the future as in the past he will be the owner of one of the best agricultural estates. in Ohio.

HENRY GEYER.

The subject of this sketch one of the popular and influential citizens of Paulding was born in Van Wert, O., May 30, 1871, and came to Paulding in 1892, and has ever since followed the profession or trade of a barber and with all the details of which trade he is perfectly familiar and his shop is thoroughly and modernly fitted for the utmost comfort of his patrons and for expedicious work. In the caring for his tools he is an expert. His razors always have a keen edge and glide over the face with the heaviest beard with ease. His style of hair-cutting is always up to date and of the latest fashion. Both in his personal bearing and in his business he is popular with everybody and he always deports himself as a gentleman. April 2, 1897, he was united in marriage in Paulding county, Ohio, with Miss Ella Hawk, daughter of John and Adaline (Gregory) Hawk, an old and well known pioneer family of Paulding county. Mr. Geyers parents were Ferdinand and Augusta (Novlenhoupt) Geyer. The former was born in Saxony, Germany, November 23, 1844, and died in Monroeville, Indiana, December 28, 1895. The latter is now living in Monroeville, Indiana. His father served in the 64th O. V. I. for three years and rendered his country much valuable service.

The subject of this sketch is a member of the K. of P. and F. & A. M. orders at Paulding, Ohio. He and his family are members of the Deciple church and give freely of their time and means for the good of the church and cause. In politics Mr. Geyer is a Republican and popular with both the party and people.

JOHN MUSSELMAN.

The subject of this sketch, John Musselman, Jr., is a native of Paulding county. His history extends almost through the entire history of the county. He has seen almost its entire growth. When his childhood eyes first beheld the giant forests of Paulding county their primeval solitude was almost co-extensive with the county. Their silence was broken only by the voice of the savage and the denizen. Those early experiences cannot be understood by those that appeared later on the scene. Those days were days of grandeur and sublimity. No person could daily tread those forest paths, without becoming large and noble in character. He who has roamed the trackless forests in an earler day is ever and anon filled with a sweet sadness undescribable to the inexperienced. None would trade the sweet memories of that early past for the treasures of the present.

JOHN MUSSELMAN AND FAMILY

John Musselman, the subject of this sketch, was born in Paulding county, March 11, 1837. His early life was such as would be experienced by the earliest pioneer March 5, 1863, he was united in marriage in Paulding county with Miss Rebecca Hayes, who was born in Jackson county, Virginia, November 13, 1842. To this union were born Nathan, April 10, 1864, (deceased), Emanuel, June 2, 1886, 1866 (deceased), John M., October 13, 1867, David, October 31, 1867, Martha, May 17, 1872, Minerva, February 27, 1877, Clement and Adin, twins September 20, 1880. Mr. Musselman's life has been an interesting life of energy, economy and strictest integrity. They commenced married life in 1863 on an 80 acre piece of woods in a round pole shanty, ten by twelve feet and afterwards into a hued log house. He owns at present 477 acres mostly improved upon which he has erected a splendid brick house in two wings, one 18 by 28, and the other 70 by 50 feet. He has a commodious barn and numerous out buildings, which give the place a progressive, thrifty and modern appearance. Mr. Musselman although a Democrat, has been a man of his profession rather than a politician. He has held the office of trustee one term and was elected justice of the peace, but would not serve. The Musselmans have given name to their vicinity and are of the substantial citizens of the county.

HON. H. K. GAUT.

Mr. Gaut has been prominently identified with public affairs of Payne and vicinity so long that we feel that he is justly entitled to the prefix to his name. He was born June 11, 1841, in Harrison county, Ohio, and moved to Allen county Indiana, and settled near Monroeville, where he remained Courtland W. Starkey.—In Clermont county, Ohio, on the 18th day of August, 1846, Courtland W. Starkey was born, and is a successful farmer of Crane township. He was the son of Shadrach and Jemima (Bennet) Starkey, of Irish extraction, the death of the father occurring in 1859, and that of the mother in 1854. At the age of eighteen years, Courtland Starkey began life for himself, working by the day and month, continuing the same until, on June 12, 1870, Miss Mary E., the daughter of Evan and Permelia (Travis) Simpson became his wife. Mrs. Starkey, who was born December 6, 1851, became the mother of six children, whose names are as follows: Etta M., Onah, the wife of John Musselman; Nellie I., Belle G., Ray E. and Millie O. The family are members of the Presbyterian church. Politically Mr. Starkey is a democrat, having held the office of township trustee for one year and acted as a member of the board of education for six years. In his business life Mr. Starkey has been successful, having begun threshing in the fall of 1870, and has continued the same each season until the present time.

Sherwood man killed in truck crash

19 Jul 1978

A Sherwood man was killed in a spectacular truck crash Monday afternoon at approximately 1 p.m. in Auglaize Township. Maynard R. Musselman, 61, was dead on arrival at Parkview Hospital, Ft. Wayne where he was taken by the Oakwood EMS.

Mr. Musselman, driving a dump truck belonging to the Defiance County Highway Department, was westbound on county road 166 when he failed to yield at a stop sign and hit a pickup truck driven by Ronald O. Geren, Route 2, Continental.

Mr. Geren was driving northbound on county road 263; he was listed in "fair" condition at Parkview Tuesday morning.

After the trucks collided, they struck a large power pole and came to rest at an old school building at the intersection.

Shortly after the EMS squad pulled the victims of the crash from the vehicles, the old building and trucks burst into flames. Fire fighting units from South Richland, Oakwood and Continental fought the blaze. The Paulding County Sheriff's Department also assisted at the scene of the accident.

It was reported that lines from the power pole had snapped and fallen at about the time the blaze started.

The accident occurred at the intersection of the Defiance-Putnam and Paulding county lines. Both vehicles were demolished.

FRANCIS MARION RANKIN.

This well-known business man of Covington, Ohio, comes of good old colonial stock. The early home of the Rankin family was in Scotland, but in the latter part of the sixteenth century three brothers left that country on account of religious persecution and started for Donegal, Ireland, but two of these were murdered by their enemies. The other, William Rankin, with his family, crossed the channel, and throughout the remainder of his life made his home in Ireland. In 1720 three of his sons, Adam, John and Hal, with their respective families, emigrated to America, landing in Philadelphia. It was from John Rankin that our subject is descended. His son Thomas had four sons who served under Washington in the Revolutionary war, and after its close Thomas, with his family of twelve children, removed to eastern Tennessee. His son Richard had four sons—Thomas, Samuel, David and William—who fought under General Jackson in the war of 1812, and David was killed in battle. William became a Presbyterian minister and spent many years in Fort Madison, Iowa. He lived to be nearly one hundred years of age. Some of the family settled in Virginia, others in North Carolina, Tennessee and Ohio. Richard Rankin, the son of John, the emigrant, was the progenitor of the family in Virginia. Joseph Rankin, grandfather of our subject, was born in Pennsylvania, and removed to Rockbridge county, Virginia, with his father, spending the remainder of his life there. He married and reared a family of several children.

Joshua Rankin, our subject's father, was born near Staunton, Virginia, in 1809, and in early life married Anna Musselman, also a native of the Old Dominion. Soon after their marriage they came to Ohio and settled near Pyrmont, Montgomery county. The father was an excellent mechanic, and was interested in several different enterprises, among others being the manufacture of rope, having previously invented a machine for that purpose. Before coming to this state he had also invented a clover huller, which was largely used. About 1845 he removed to Hagerstown, Indiana, but four years later returned to Ohio and this time located in Covington, Miami county, where he followed different vocations until his death, April 3, 1857. He was a stanch Democrat in politics, and while a resident of Pyrmont served as postmaster. In 1878 his widow married Edward Mooney. She died in Covington in March, 1897, at the age of eighty-four years. Her father, who was of German descent, followed farming in Montgomery county, his home being on Tom's run, near Pyrmont.

Our subject is the eighth in order of birth in a family of ten children, the others being as follows: Martha J., born November 9, 1832, married William Murray, a soldier of the civil war; Elizabeth Susan, born February 23, 1835, died at the age of three years; Joseph K., born May 12, 1836, married a Miss Wilkinson, and resides in Highland, Kansas; David B., born November 24, 1837, was a member of the Eighth Ohio Cavalry from 1862 to 1865, married Jennie Thomson, and resides in Covington; Jacob Kennison, born December 29, 1839, served for three years in Company B, Ninety-fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, during the civil war, married Matilda Enyart, and died in Wabash county, Indiana; John Henry, born September 4, 1841, married Anna Smith and lives in Springfield, Illinois; Mary Ann, born June 14, 1843, died in her fifth year; Franklin Oliver, born May 20, 1845, died in 1848; James Orrin Thomas, born September 20, 1850, died September 1, 1870; and Angus Kurtz, born March 12, 1856, married Margaret Robbins, and resides in Dayton, Ohio.

Francis M. Rankin, of this review, was born in Hagerstown, Indiana, June 20, 1848, and was only a year old when his parents returned to Ohio and took up their residence in Covington, where he has since made his home. He attended the public schools until fourteen years of age, and then laid aside his text-books to enter the service of his country during the dark days of the rebellion, enlisting, at Covington, for one hundred days' service, in Company I, One Hundred and Forty-seventh Ohio Volunteer Infantry, under Captain Class and Colonel Rawson. After serving that term he came home and re-enlisted, February 7, 1865, for one year, in Company B, One Hundred and Ninety-fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, under Captain Class and Colonel Anson B. McCook. During his first term of enlistment he was stationed most of the time in Washington, D. C., and vicinity, and was in the Fort Stevens fortifications during the fight with Early. As a member of the One Hundred and Ninety-fourth Regiment he was in the Shenandoah valley and at Washington, being on duty constantly until discharged at Washington, in October, 1865. Before entering the army he had been employed in the Covington Woolen Factory, but after his return home he served an apprenticeship to the plasterer's trade, which he has since followed with good success.

In 1874 Mr. Rankin married Miss Laura B. Hart, and to them were born three children: Mamie F., Bessie G., and Martha M. Mrs. Rankin was born on the Hart homestead in Newberry township, Miami county, November 11, 1853, and is a daughter of Ebenezer Hart, who was born in the Tuscarora valley, Juniata county, Pennsylvania, November 4, 1806. Her grandfather, Hugh Hart, was born in Londonderry, Ireland, March 17, 1764, and was married, April 28, 1794, to Mary Ard, a native of the same country, then twenty-one years of age. On their emigration to America they settled in the Tuscarora valley, where they spent the remainder of their lives. The grandfather was a well-to-do farmer, a member of the United Presbyterian church, and a highly educated man of literary tastes, who wrote many beautiful poems. In his family were the following children: Naomi H., born January 25, 1795, married a Mr. Stewart; Nancy, born January 2, 1799, died in childhood; Hugh, born November 15, 1800, died in Preble county, Ohio; Jeanette, born November 9, 1802, married James Elliott and spent her last days in Sidney, Ohio; Mary, born October 17, 1804, married a Mr. Cummin, and was the mother of Judge Cummin, of Pennsylvania; Ebenezer, father of Mrs. Rankin, was next in order of birth; William, born February 7, 1809, married Prudence Ann Robinson; and Joseph, born in 1811, married Miss Sarah Irwin, and settled on a farm in Pfoutz's valley, three miles from Millerstown, where he died.

Ebenezer Hart, Mrs. Rankin's father, grew to manhood on the homestead in Tuscarora valley, Pennsylvania, and received a good education in the schools of his time and also from his father. He was reared to agricultural pursuits, but when quite a young man went to Baltimore, Maryland, where he worked at the carpenter's trade for a time. Being industrious and economical, he saved money, and on leaving home in 1836 and coming to Ohio, he was able to purchase one hundred and seventy acres of land on Trotter's creek, in Newberry township, Miami county, being assisted to some extent by his father. He made the journey to this state on horseback. His first home here was a log cabin, but in later years he erected a good brick residence, the second in that section of the county. He was three years in preparing the material for his home, burning all his own brick. He was a man of magnificent physique, being over six feet in heigth and weighing over two hundred pounds. He possessed more than ordinary business ability, and became a very prosperous farmer, as well as one of the highly respected and honored citizens of his community. He had many virtues, was very charitable, and on account of his business ability was often consulted on technical matters. On the 20th of September, 1836, he wedded Mary Ann Templeton, who was born in Newberry township, this county, February 2, 1816, a daughter of Lemuel and Elizabeth (McKibbon) Templeton, natives of Pennsylvania. Mr. Hart died December 14, 1884, his wife June 26, 1892. He was a stanch Democrat, was justice of the peace for years and settled many estates. In the family of this worthy couple were ten children: Elizabeth, born February 24, 1838, was married, January 5, 1860, to John Nettleship, and they reside in Port Jefferson, Ohio; Hugh Ard, born February 20, 1840, was married, June 15, 1864, to Lydia J. Christian, and died in Delphos, Ohio, February 27, 1878; Mary Ard, born November 20, 1841, was married, June 20, 1861, to Robert C. Levering, and died at Peterson Station, Miami county, December 29, 1880; Maria, born January 31, 1844, died January 9, 1858; Nancy, born January 3, 1846, was married, March 26, 1868, to Dr. Adam M. Wassam, now of Galveston, Texas; Joseph Lemuel, born February 22, 1848, died March 6, 1857; Ebenezer, born January 23, 1850, was married, January 1, 1878, to Emma S. Minnick, and died in July, 1899, in Eureka, Kansas, where he was engaged in business as a druggist and physician; William, born January 6, 1852, was married, September 24, 1874, to Emma J. Nicholson; and January 15, 1880, to Fannie Brumbaugh; Laura B., wife of our subject, is the next of the family; and Wesley Alphonso, born March 11, 1856, was married, December 28, 1880, to Ada Claycomb, and they reside in Galena, Kansas.

Since 1866 Mr. Rankin has been a consistent and faithful member of the Christian church, and also belongs to the Odd Fellows Lodge, No. 383, of Covington, and Longston Post, G. A. R. By his ballot he supports the men and measures of the Republican party. Although he is one of its stanch adherents, he has never been able to convert his wife, who is an ardent Democrat. During her girlhood she united with the Cumberland Presbyterian church of Covington, but in 1892 joined the Christian church, with which she is now connected. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rankin are widely known and are held in high regard in the community where they have so long made their home.

JOHN C. WRIGHT.

John C. Wright, of this review, who is farming in Concord township, Miami county, and is serving as assessor of the township, a position which he has acceptably filled for the past ten years, was born in 1842,

The Rochester Sentinel, Tuesday, March 20, 1906

At the family home, near Leiters Ford, Mrs. Ed [ward] [Mary REICHARD] NEWCOMER, died on the 15th inst., at the age of 59 years. When a little girl she came with her parents from Ohio to Indiana and married Edward Newcomer 29 years ago. To this union were born five children, three of whom preceded the mother in death, two sons and her husband surviving.

Mrs. Newcomer was in early life a member of the U.B. church but later transferred her membership to the Methodists and lived a faithful and influential christian life.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. T. B. MARKIN, pastor of the Leiters Ford church. Interment in the Sharon cemetery.

Obit -
The News-Sentinel, Fulton County, Indiana, Friday, January 13, 1950

Alen K. Reichard

Fulton county's oldest citizen, [Alen] K. REICHARD, aged 98, one month and 11 days, passed away 4:30 a.m. today at the home of his son, Omer REICHARD, three miles southwest of Leiters Ford. Mr. Reichard suffered a stroke about a week ago and failed to rally. He had been a resident of Fulton county since 1873 coming here from Wabash County, Ind.

Previous to his last illness he was enjoying fairly good health and was able to take a most active part in his last birthday anniversary observance which was held at the home of his son.

He was born December 2, 1851 in Darke County, Ohio. On November 18, 1885 he was married to Catherine McCOMBS at Royal Center, Ind. He followed the occupation of farming until his retirement several years ago.

Mr. Reichard was a member of the Leiters Ford Methodist church, the I.O.O.F. Lodge No. 618 of Leiters Ford and the Kewanna I.O.O.F. Encampment No. 151.

Survivors are two sons, Omer E. REICHARD and Paul C. REICHARD, route 1, Kewanna; four grandsons; four great-grandsons and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Sunday 2 p.m. at the Sharon church with the Rev. George VANCE of Leiters Ford officiating. Burial will be in the Moon cemetery, near Leiters Ford.

The body will be removed from the Foster funeral home to the Omer Reichard residence Saturday morning, where friends may call.

JOHN STARR,
Elected Sheriff of Madison County, Nov. 6, 1864.

sketch. He was born in Adams township, January 22, 1863, when the Rebellion was at its height. His father, Samuel Titus, came to the county about the year 1845. He was born in New Jersey in 1814. He was married to Eliza Seward, daughter of James Seward. She was born in Ohio, April, 1824. They were married in 1842. Mr. Titus died June 9, 1886. Mrs. Titus died January 15, 1870. Both are buried at the Collier cemetery, in Adams township. Both were members of the Missionary Baptist Church.

Liscom Titus was married to Martha F. McDaniel, daughter of Jacob A. McDaniel, on the 16th day of February, 1888. She was born in Hancock county, Indiana, August 9, 1870. The following are the names of the children born to Mr. and Mrs. Liscom Titus: Oscar O., born January 26, 1889. Zella M., born November 4, 1891. Justin E., born December 7, 1893.

Mr. Titus owns a fine farm two miles south of Markleville, where he devotes his time to agricultural pursuits. He is a well informed gentleman, and was elected Trustee of Adams township in 1894. He is a cultured man, and does his own reading and thinking. His wife is a lady in all that word means.

ANDREW T. GREENLEE.

I am glad to notice Mr. Greenlee in my work. He is one of the young, progressive farmers of Boone township, three miles north of Orestus, where he owns a fine farm in a high state of cultivation; in fact he is a model farmer, and resides in one of the best farming districts in the county. Mr. Greenlee was born in Kanawha county, West Virginia, September 29, 1847. Came to Madison county, Ind., October, 1852. He is a son of William and Harriet Greenlee. He was married to Prudence A. Ball on the 18th day of January, 1872. The following are the names of their children: Carl, Annie, Carrie, Harry,

Donald, Mary and Esther. Mrs. Greenlee is a daughter of William Ball. She was born February 18, 1851. Her mother's name before marriage was Mary McCray, born in 1837. Mr. Ball was born April 22, 1822. Both members of the Baptist Church at New Harmony.

Andrew T. Greenlee is a member of the Christian Church and a Republican. Glad to give this worthy family a sketch in the Pioneer, and trust they may live long and prosper.

THE SURBER FAMILY.

This sturdy pioneer family came to Adams township, Madison county, from the Kanawha River, West Virginia, about the year 1828, and settled on Lick Creek. The older set consisted of five brothers and three sisters, as follows: John, Moses, Henry, Joseph and James. Margaret, married to J. F. Collier; Nancy, married to Carbon Jackson; Anna, married to Edward Adams, all deceased. John, the oldest, whose cabin home appears in this work, settled on the south bank of Lick Creek, two miles south of New Columbus and five miles east of Pendleton. He was born about 1800 and died in 1873, and is buried at the Busby cemetery. He was, it is said, the strongest man that ever lived in Madison county, well fitted for a pioneer, which he was in every sense of the word. He came strong and determined to make a home, which he did, by hard work and industry. He told the writer he cut and split five hundred rails in a day, and walked two miles each way. He was as strong as two ordinary men, yet as gentle as a child. If he liked you, he could not do enough for you. He was kind to the poor newcomer. John Surber and family will long be remembered as a pioneer family on Lick Creek.

His first wife died about the year 1846. He was again married to Parmelia Wagoner. Three children were born to this marriage. The following are the names of the children by his first wife: Riley, Andrew, Mrs. Manley Reger, Mrs. Isabell Riggs, William Harvey, Mrs. Melissa Shelton, Mahala, Susan. Andrew, Joseph, Minerva and Maggie, are deceased. William Harvey resides in Seattle, Washington. Mrs. Manly Reger, on the county line dividing the counties of Madison and Hancock. Mrs. Isabel Riggs resides three miles south of Anderson, Indiana. All the children were blessed with a fine physique, strong and active.

Of John Surber's brothers and sisters I might say Moses was for many years a Justice of the Peace, away back in the Thirties. He died about the year 1876. Margaret Collier, formerly Margaret Blake, a grand, good woman, was born in Virginia, August 29, 1805. She died in 1894, and is buried at the Collier cemetery, in Adams township. Mrs. Adams died in California. Mrs. Jackson died near Logansport, Indiana. To the second marriage of John Surber, there was born: Susan, Joseph and Margaret, all of whom are deceased, as well as their mother, who died in Marshall county, Indiana, in 1893.

HON. ROBERT H. CREE.

Mr. Cree was born in Ohio in 1820, and came with his father, John Cree, to Pipe Creek when a young man, perhaps in 1839. At the age of twenty-five he was married to Sarah E. Marshall. The following are the names of their children, now mostly dead and buried at the Mt. Pisgah cemetery, near their old home: Mary J., died August 21, 1863. She was about twelve years of age. James M., died in 1849. George M., died April 2, 1882. John M., died October 22, 1887. He was married to Miss Walker. Armitta, married to Calvin Dean; reside in Fairmount, Ind. Lucien A., died April 2, 1884, aged twenty-seven years. He was married to Mary A. Norris. She resides in Anderson. Florence, married to Robert Polk. She is also dead. Cal L., married to Josephine McCown; reside in Alexandria, Ind. Robert H. Cree, the father, died

Miller, Henry, farmer, Walnut township; son of Abraham and Elizabeth (Brumback) Miller. He was born in Walnut township, November 12, 1805. Abraham Miller, born in Pennsylvania, removed to Virginia, where he was married and came with his wife and five children to Ohio in the spring of 1805, settling in this township, on the place owned by David Miller, which is still owned by his heirs. Abraham entered a one-half section of land and improved it. He raised a family of nine children, two now living: Barbara, widow of Joseph Berry, a resident of Iowa, and Henry Miller. Abraham Miller was Justice of the Peace for a number of years. He was a member of Menonite Church. He died September 3, 1831; his widow, March 6, 1862, in her ninety-first year. Henry Miller completed his education and helped in clearing the home place. In 1826, his father gave him a one-fourth section of land. This he improved. He built a hewed log house, where his present residence stands. In 1839, he was married to Rachel Ann Biddell, who was born in this county. To that marriage have been born eight children, four of whom are living. Mrs. Miller died about 1861. Mr. Miller now owns five hundred acres. He never desired office, but accepted that of township treasurer one year. In 1862 Mr. Miller was married to Miss Mary Shane, who was born in Walnut township. They are the parents of three children, one living, Alma Jane, residing with her father. Mrs. Miller died in 1872. Mr. Miller is a member of the Baptist Church. He owns one hundred and sixty acres of land, which he cleared. He is a self-made man.

Miller, Mrs. Barbara, was born in Pleasant township, February 5, 1813, daughter of Abraham and Mary M. (Musselman) Hite. Abraham Hite was a son of Abraham Hite, Sr., a sketch of whose life appears elsewhere. Mrs. Miller's father settled in Pleasant township about 1805 or 1806, remaining there seven years. He came to Walnut township in 1816, and settled on the place now owned by his daughter, Mrs. Miller. He built the brick residence now occupied by her, in 1826. He raised a family of three daughters, all living in Walnut township. He was a member of the Baptist Church. He died in 1860. Mrs. Miller was married December 1, 1831, to John W. Miller, who was born in this county, March 25, 1809. After marriage the young couple resided on a portion of the Hite place; afterwards took charge of the home place, and still reside there. They were the parents of nine children, of whom five are living: Mary Magdaline, wife of B. F. Warner, of Walnut township; Jacob D., residing on a portion of the home place; Elizabeth, the wife of B. F. Winters, a resident of this township; Samuel W., married and living on the home place; Benjamin F., born May 4, 1854, married in 1875, to Miss Emma F. Cook. They are the parents of three children, one son and one daughter living. Mr. Miller died September 26, 1876. His widow, assisted by her sons, conducts the home place. Mrs. Miller is a member of the Baptist Church.

Miller, Alexander, farmer, Liberty township. He was born in Shenandoah county, Virginia, January 13, 1814; the son of Peter and Christiana (Hisey) Miller. He was educated in the common schools of Virginia. He remained with his parents and engaged in farming until he came to Ohio, in 1836. He located in Liberty township and began work at the carpenters' trade, of which he had acquired some knowledge before leaving his native State. In October, 1837, he was married, to Hester, daughter of John Bright. He settled the following year on the place where he still resides; it was then entirely wild, but has since been transformed into a fine improved farm, of two hundred and forty-nine acres, with modern and commodious farm buildings. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are the parents of thirteen children, of whom the following are living: Peter, living upon the family homestead; Harriet, the wife of Henry Smith, of Liberty township; Enoch F., who, also, resides on a part of the home place; Hannah, now Mrs. John Myers, of Indiana; Mary, the wife of Ezra Smith; John H., James P., Ellen and Caroline Augusta, still at home. Mr. Miller and family are members of the Lutheran church. His sons, Peter and Enoch F., were in the One Hundred and Sixtieth O. V. I. during the late war.

Miller, Samuel M. B., farmer, Walnut township. He was born in this township February 8, 1837; the second son of James and Narcisa (Shaw) Miller. James Miller was born in this township August 11, 1811; only son of James Sr., who came to Ohio in 1801 or 1802, settling on the place now owned by his grandson, S. M. B. Miller. He entered one-fourth section of land and built a log house, where he spent his days; he died in 1847. James Miller, Jr., was married July 3, 1834, to Narcisa Shaw, daughter of William Shaw, at one time a resident of Walnut township, afterwards of Auglaize county, Ohio. Mrs. Miller was born in Fayette county, Virginia, October 5, 1814. James Miller resided on the home place until his death. They were the parents of two sons; D. L. died November, 1856, in his 21st year, and S. M. B. James Miller was a member of the Methodist Protestant church. He died November 18, 1877. His widow is still living. S. M. B. M. was married January 1, 1863, to Miss Louisa, daughter of Elijah Berry; she was born in this county January 11, 1842. They are the parents of three sons, E. B., J. M. and C. M. Mr. Miller is a member of the I. O. O. F. He owns ninety-three acres of land, and is a worthy citizen.

Miller, Henry G., was born in Guernsey county, Ohio, March 2, 1836. He resided in that county until 1850, when he removed to Morgan county, and from there to Fairfield county, in 1865. He was married October 29, 1860, to Mary Melissa Nulton, who was born in Washington county, Ohio, December 4, 1838. Their children are: Alonzo E., born May 5, 1862; Lena E., born May 20, 1864; Lizzie L., born October 14, 1866; Flora W., born December 26, 1868; George H., born March 25, 1871; Anna F., born November 20, 1873; Mary, born May 4, 1876. Mr. Miller is one of the wealthiest farmers in Pleasant township, and is the owner of a very fine residence.

Minehart, Absalom, farmer, Liberty township. He was born in Liberty township April 17, 1818; the son of Adam and Julia Ann Minehart. Adam Minehart came to Ohio from Pennsylvania, in 1802, he being at that time eighteen years of age. He entered a farm of eighty acres, which he cleared. The farm is now owned by Joseph Snider. Mr. Minehart occupied his time during winter teaching school. He studied and taught both the English and German branches, 5-95 - C Thrasher

Jacob Bachman family Bible records from James L. Cooper-March 1992

I found in Virginia marriages - Elizabeth Musselman md. Jacob Barkham on Oct. 12, 1807 by Rev. Paul Henkel in Shenandoah Co. Va.. The date is the same as you have - only the name varies. Abraham Hite is the only name I could find in Fairfield Co. Ohio of the Musselman family.

Another item: Andreas Mosselman together with Johann Mosimal, Phil. Dec. 22, 1744 Ship "Muscliffe Galley." The Mennonite family Mosimann (Mosemann, Muselmann) is of Swiss origin. Some families left for south west Germany and emigrated from there to America. - found in Carlsbad, Ca. Library.

ALMOST A CENTENARIAN.

Death of Samuel Musselman, of Licking Township.

Mr. Samuel Musselman, one of Licking county's oldest and most revered pioneers, died of old age, yesterday afternoon, at four o'clock, at his residence in Licking township, about four miles from this city. His age was ninety-six years and seven months. He was born in Virginia, but bed resided in the neighborhood where he died, for a period of seventy years. He had been married about the same length of time. Mrs. Musselman, is still living, but enfeebled from an attack of paralysis, three years ago. Mr. Musselman was the father of a large family, and lived to see all his children reach maturity in prosperity and happiness. Good and strict habits no doubt assisted in prolonging his life, with good health to the last. It has been said by those who knew him, that he was never sick in his life, and it is less than a year ago, that he was in the habit of handling an axe or doing other work around the farm, with almost as much agility, as men of younger years. Respected by all who knew him, and honored for his many sterling qualities, he dies, mourned by all.

The funeral is arranged to take place to-morrow, at one o'clock p. m. at his late residence.

LICKING TOWNSHIP.

MUSSELMAN, SAMUEL, son of John and Mary Musselman, was born in Page county, Virginia, November 8, 1785; remained with his parents until he was nearly twenty-nine years old; married Miss Catharine Gochenhour in April, 1814. In October of the same year they removed to Franklin township, arriving there on the thirty-first day of that month; remained there one year and a half, then came into this township. He bought eighty-four acres of land where he still lives, having added more acres to it. He has lived here sixty-four years. His occupation has been that of farming all his life. He says he saw Mansfield when there was but one little frame house and one log cabin in the place, and in one of these he ate some venison. He says that Newark at that time was also very small, and ponds of water stood where the court house now stands. Mr. Mussslman inherited habits of industry, which are still manifest in his old age, moving about quite actively now in his ninety-fifth year. Mr. Musselman and wife have been married sixty-six years; she was eighty-five years old May 28, 1880. They have had eight children, four boys and four girls—Noah married Elizabeth Richardson, and had one child (dead); John married Rachel Johnston, and has six children; Lewis died when eleven years old; Elizabeth was married to Robert Stickley, and has five children; Rachel was married to Thomas J. Bowlby, and has four living children (Lilly M., Clarrie A., Custis M., and Amsie Irene); Lilly is married to Frank H. Bradley, of Virginia, who is a farmer, and they have four children (Otie Lee, Freddie Scott, Etta E., and Claude C.); Clarrie is married to Milton L. Eagle, a farmer and minister in the Tunker church, and they have one child, Fern D. Mr. and Mrs. Musselman have twenty-five grandchildren, and about the same number of great-grandchildren. They both belong to the Baptist church. In politics Mr. Musselman has been a life-long Democrat.

MUSSELMAN, JOSEPH, was born December 2, 1820, in Licking township, and is the son of Samuel and Catharine Musselman. Joseph was married to Lucinda Wilkin, of Newark, who was born October 11, 1825. She was the daughter of Daniel and Barbara Wilkin, who came to this county in 1819. Results of this marriage, four children—Robert was born November 26, 1846, married to Anna Yocum, of Newark, and now lives in Newark township; Samuel, born April 28, 1850, was married to ed September 25, 1874, and left a wife and two children; Anna B. was born February 14, 1853, was married September 9, 1875, to Henry Dorsey, of this county, and now lives in Newark township; Ola M. was born February 13, 1857, is single, and lives at home. Mrs. Musselman is a member of the Old School Baptist church. Mr. Musselman lives near the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and is a practical farmer and fruit grower.

LIMA TOWNSHIP.

MCQUEEN, GIDEON, blacksmith, post office, Pataskala. He was born in this county, October 31, 1821. He is a son of Minor and Sarah McQueen, who came from east Virginia about 1812, and settled in Fallsbury township, where they died at the age of eighty-three years. They were among the first settlers in this section. Mr. McQueen entered his tract of land, and in 1837 he erected a church, of the Baptist pursuasion, on his farm, in which he officiated as minister over forty years, and was an earnest worker for Christ. The subject of this sketch is the eighth of a family of twelve children. He was raised on the farm, and can recall many incidents of pioneer life, and grew up on the frontier, and received a limited education, but a good one for the times. At the age of eighteen he was entered as an apprentice at the blacksmith trade in Fallsburgh, a town that his father had laid out on his farm, where he worked about twenty years. He was married April, 1844, to Lucinda Athey (who died Christmas, 1861). Her parents came from Virginia. After his wife's death he went to Pontiac, Illinois, where he stayed one year, and then came back to the old place, and in November, 1864, he was married to Isabella Miles, of Knox county, and in 1868 he gave up his business to his son and moved to Newton township, and in the spring of the year 1878 he moved to Pataskala, where he still follows his trade. Mr. McQueen has raised eight children, his eldest, George, served as a volunteer in the late war, in company A, Seventy-sixth regiment Ohio volunteer infantry, for three years.

MILLS, W. R., post office, Pataskala, was born in Franklin county in 1845, came to Licking county in the same year, and remained until he was seventeen years of age, with his uncle, Samuel Mills, of this county. He then travelled, following his trade of carpentering, for about nine years. He married in 1871, Miss Mary F. Ritchie, of Licking county. He now owns forty acres, with a fine two-story house, and the necessary barns, stables, and appliances for a farm of this size.

MYERS, JESSE, post office, Summit Station. Jesse Myers was born in 1814, the fourteenth day of Henry Myers and Rebecca Stone, married in Virginia, and came to Ohi settling in Harrison township, where some five years; they then removed to U ship, there being but few families th time. Jesse Myers married Miss Cath gart, the daughter of James and Sarah 1846, July 26th.

Death of Samuel Musselman, of Licking Township.

Mr. Samuel Musselman, one of Licking county's oldest and most revered pioneers, died of old age Friday afternoon, at four o'clock, at his residence in Licking township, about four miles from this city. His age was ninety-six years and seven months. He was born in Virginia, but had resided in the neighborhood where he died, for a period of seventy years. He had been married about the same length of time. Mrs. Musselman, is still living, but enfeebled from an attack of paralysis, three years ago. Mr. Musselman was the father of a large family, and lived to see all his children reach maturity in prosperity and happiness. Good and strict habits no doubt assisted in prolonging his life, with good health to the last. It has been said by those who knew him, that he was never sick in his life, and it is less than a year ago, that he was in the habit of handling an axe or doing other work around the farm, with almost as much agility, as men of younger years. Respected by all who knew him, and honored for his many sterling qualities, he dies, mourn-

THE two-year-old son of Jasper Ross, of Navarre, strangled to death while eating supper. The child had taken a bite of hard-fried potatoes and a small particle lodged in his windpipe. A physician was hastily summoded, but before his arrival the boy was dead.

Letters were received during the month from Hon. B. F. De Costa, editor of the Magazine of American History, New York City; Professor J. T. Short, of the Ohio State University, from Janice Cooper March 1992

Mrs. Reason DeBolt, of Rutland Township

Mrs. Reason DeBolt died at the family residence in Rutland township at 7 o'clock last Monday morning. Had she lived until Dec. 20th she would have been 74 years old. She was born in Maryland, and when a child her parents removed to Licking county, Ohio. She was married to Noah Musselman in 1841, who died the folloiwing year. In 1844 she was married to Mr. DeBolt and came with him that year to La Salle county. They settled near Sulphur Springs, Fox river, where she lived until her death. She was the mother of three children--Madison, who lives at Wedron, Mrs. Emily Parrott, a resident of Rutland township, and Frank who resides in Rutland. Funeral services at the house at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Interment in the family burying ground.

Report of David Wagoner, Admr of the Estate of George H. Musselman, dec'd in Partial Settlement.

The Admr shows that at the last Report there was a deficit of $8.29 over and above all the assets; but upon an examination of said Report he finds that an error occurred in charging himself with amt of Inventory of $30— which he now corrects by charging bal. after deducting deficit:	21	71
Total Chargeable			21	71
The Admr asks Credit for the following sums as per vouchers herewith filed:

State of Indiana } Court of Common Pleas
Clinton County } December Term 1856

The undersigned Guardian of the persons and property of the minor heirs of George W. Musselman, deceased, would report, that pursuant to an order of said Court, made at the January term thereof A.D. 1854 she caused by her agent George W. Ewing the lands described in her said petition and so decreed to be sold, to be advertised, in accordance with the order made by the Court, that on the day appointed for the public sale, no purchaser appeared, but that afterwards to wit on the seventh day of May A.D. 1855 she sold to James A. Wood, Frederick Stokey and John Jackson the following described real estate situate in the Counties of Crawford & Richland in the State of Wisconsin — to wit the S.W.¼ of the S.W.¼ of Section 6. and the N.W.¼ of the N.W.¼ of Section 7 in Town No 8. in ~~Town~~ Range No 2 West in Richland Co. And the South half of the S.E.¼ of Section 1 in Town 8 Range 3 West in Crawford County at private sale for the sum of five hundred dollars, ~~one half~~ two hundred and twenty five dollars of which was paid cash in hand — and notes taken to secure the balance — payable thirty months after date with ten per cent interest, the above being the best price that could be obtained, and being more

State of Indiana } Court of Common Pleas
Clinton County } January Term AD 1854

To the Court of Common Pleas of said County.

Your petitioner Esther Musselman Guardian of the persons and property of John Musselman Elizabeth Musselman, Daniel Musselman and Anna Musselman infant heirs of George W. Musselman deceased, would respectfully represent that as yet no personal property belonging to said wards has come to her possession, the estate of said decedent not being yet settled, but that there will very little, and most probably not anything left after the settlement of all claims, cost, of administration, &c. [illegible] wards have no personal estate dependent upon the execution of any trust nor upon the settlement of any estate other than that above mentioned. Your petitioner would further state that she has not received belonging to said wards, the real estate belonging to them being wild and unimproved lands. Your petitioner would further represent that said wards are the owners in fee simple subject to the dower right of your petitioner of the following described real estate situate in the State of Wisconsin to wit; the SW¼ of the SW¼ of Sect 6. and the NW¼ of the NW¼ of Sect 7. Town No 8. N of R 2 West in Richland Co in said State, and the S½ of the S.E. qr of Sect No 1 Town No 8 N of R 3 West & the North East and North West quarter of Sect No 23 Town No 9 N of R 3 West in Crawford County in said State, that said lands are wild and ~~uncult~~ unimproved yielding nothing for the support of and main= tenance of said wards. Your petitioner therefore asks an order for the sale of all of said lands or so much as may be deemed proper and necessary to be sold for the purpose of raising means for the support, maintenance and education of said children, as they are now dependent almost entirely upon the exertions of your petitioner. The respective ages of said wards are about as follows towit: John 13 years, Elizabeth 9 years, Daniel 8 years & Anna 5 years. they now reside with your petitioner in ~~Clinton~~ Carroll County in the State of Indiana.

All of which is respectfully submitted

SHIVELY, John L., cashier of the La Place State Bank, is one of the substantial and reliable men of Piatt County, and a forceful figure in the financial circles of La Place. He was born in Cerro Gordo Township, July 26, 1872, a son of Isaac and Margaret (Blickenstaff) Shively, who were born near Dayton, Ohio. They were married in Indiana, and came to Cerro Gordo Township, Piatt County, in 1871. Here the father bought 320 acres of land which was partly improved, and he added to these improvements, and increased his acreage until he is now a heavy landowner. Both he and the mother live at La Place.

Until he was nineteen years of age, John L. Shively attended the schools of Cerro Gordo Township, and assisted his father with the farm work, continuing with his father until he attained his majority. At that time he began farming on his own account with rented land, so continuing for eight years, when he bought 160 acres of land that was improved, in Cerro Gordo Township, and conducted it for fourteen years. Moving then to the Pecos Valley, N. M., where his father owns land, he spent two winters and one summer, on land he had bought. In April, 1910, he returned to Piatt County, and bought fifteen acres of land just out of La Place, which he is operating in conjunction with his farm. In 1901 a bank was organized by John Kirby and John Dighton, and this was re-organized in 1907 as the La Place State Bank, with Isaac Shively as president, George E. Dobson as vice-president, and Robert Berger as cashier. Mr. Shively is still the president, but the vice-president is now Samuel Shively, and Mr. John L. Shively is cashier, with C. H. Adams as assistant cashier. John L. Shively has been cashier since November 1, 1915. The capital stock of the bank is $25,000, the surplus $6,000, and the deposits about $90,000.

In February, 1896, John L. Shively was married to Dora E. Musserlman, born in Missouri, a daughter of David and Susan (Cripe) Musserlman, natives of Missouri. Mr. and Mrs. Shively have the following children: Lela, who is Mrs. Eldo Hendricks of La Place, Ill.; and Glenn, Grace and Minnie, who are at home. Mr. Shively belongs to the Brethren Church. For three years he served as commissioner of highways, for two terms was a school director, and in both offices has shown executive ability and conscientious fidelity in the performance of his duties. In politics he is a Republican.

went to Taylorville, Ill., to become foreman of the Taylorville Republican, and so continued for ten years. In 1898 he came to De Land and in 1905 bought the De Land Tribune which he has since conducted, inaugurating a number of innovations and improvements, making it one of the leading weeklies of this section. A sound Republican, Mr. Murphy gives his own support and that of his paper to party candidates and measures, and is a forceful factor in politics.

In June, 1886, Mr. Murphy was married to Margaret Shackel, born at Rochester, Ill., a daughter of John and Susan Shackel, natives of Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy have the following children: Raymond, who is managing the office of the De Land Tribune; Leota, who is at home; Haidee, who is Mrs. Jesse T. Gray, of Champaign, Ill.; and Marian, who is at home. In religious faith Mr. Murphy is a Methodist. His fraternal connections are with the Knights of Pythias and Modern Woodmen of America. A fearless writer, Mr. Murphy has always espoused the cause of the people, and his organ may be counted upon to support those measures looking toward moral uplift and betterment of existing conditions.

MUSSULMAN, David, now living retired at La Place, was for a number of years one of the leading farmers of this section, and is still a heavy landowner of Piatt County. He was born in Tippecanoe County, Ind., January 15, 1846, a son of George Washington and Esther (Waggoner) Mussulman, natives of Shenandoah County, Va., and the vicinity of Dayton, Ohio. The parents were married in Ohio, but lived in Indiana until 1850 when they crossed the plains with teams to California, where the father died nine months after their arrival. Mrs. Mussulman lived in Indiana until 1867, when she moved to St. Clair County, Mo., and there was married (second) to Aaron Ulrey, a farmer.

While living in Indiana David Mussulman attended a back woods school where he was grounded in the rudiments of learning. He is the only survivor of four children born to his parents. When his mother moved to St. Clair County, Mo., he accompanied her, and resided there until 1874, when he came to Piatt County, and bought eighty acres in Cerro Gordo Township. This he operated for fourteen years, and then sold this farm and bought 160 acres of land four and one-half miles south of Milmine, that was partly improved, and had a shanty standing upon it. There was also an orchard, and other improvements, but Mr. Mussulman has erected all the present buildings, fenced the fields, put in tiling, and made the place thoroughly modern in every respect. Here he lived until November 10, 1913, when he rented his farm, and retired to La Place. Here he owns his handsome residence and seven city lots, and he and his wife are enjoying a well earned leisure.

While living in St. Clair County, Mo., Mr. Mussulman was married, March 17, 1870, to Susan Cripe, born in Carroll County, Ind., December 31, 1851, a daughter of Christian and Catherine (Replogle) Cripe, born near Dayton, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Mussulman became the parents of the following children: Dora, who is Mrs. John L. Shively of La Place, Ill.; Luther, who lives at Eagle Grove, Ia.; Ernest C., who also lives at Eagle Grove, Ia.; Anna, who is Mrs. Samuel Shively of Cerro Gordo Township; Grace, who is Mrs. George Benjamin Arnold of Cerro Gordo Township; and Chester W., who is running his father's farm.

The Church of the Brethren holds Mr. Mussulman's membership, and he has been one of its deacons for many years. In politics he is a Democrat, and while living in Cerro Gordo Township he served on the school board, was road commissioner and held other township offices, his neighbors placing trust in him and his ability to discharge the duties of public office as shown by his repeated return to them.

Couple are wed at Funk's Grove

David Alan Cripe and Ann Marita DeLathouwer were married on Aug. 31, 1985, at Funks Grove Church in Funks Grove. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wozniak of Cerro Gordo and the late Bruce Cripe. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George DeLathouwer of Kewanee.

Cripe is a graduate of Illinois State University and Cerro Gordo High School. He is an auditor for Illinois Department of Transportation.

She is a graduate of Illinois State University and Kewanee High School and is a computer programmer at State Farm Insurance in Bloomington. Following a wedding trip to St. Louis, the couple are residing in Lincoln.

The Rev. Dean Benton performed the double ring ceremony.

Mychele Kenney of Normal was maid of honor. Pam Cripe of St. Louis, the groom's sister, and Lydia Bailey of Normal were bridesmaids. Lisa DeLathouwer of Kewanee, niece of the bride, and Amy Wozniak of Cerro Gordo, sister of the groom, were junior bridesmaids.

Flower girls were Cindy Lubbers and Peggy Baylor of Weldon. Timmy DeLathouwer of Kewanee was ring bearer.

Best man was the groom's cousin, Derek Blackshare of Cherokee, Oklahoma. Groomsmen were Bob DeLathouwer of Hemet, California, bride's brother, and Harl Hillman of Cerro Gordo. Serving as ushers were John DeLathouwer of Kewanee, brother of the bride; Steve Wozniak of Cerro Gordo, brother of the groom; and Tony Schmillen of Princeton, brother-in-law of groom.

Todd Hooker of Cerro Gordo the organist. Susan Schmiller Princeton, sister of the groom, vocalist.

Following the ceremony reception was held in the Amer Legion Hall of Lincoln.

1974 LaPlace, Illinois Centennial Book

David Musselman was born in Tippecanoe County, Indiana January 13, 1846, a son of George Washington and Esther (Waggoner) Musselman, natives of Shenandoah County, Va. and the vicinity of Dayton, Ohio. The parents were married in Ohio but lived in Indiana until 1850 when they crossed the plains with teams to California where the father died 9 months after arrival. Mrs. Musselman lived in Indiana until 1867 when she moved to St. Clair County, Missouri, and there was married, second, to Aaron Ulrey.

David Mussulman was the only survivor of the 4 children born to his parents. When his mother moved to St. Clair County Missouri he accompanied her and resided there until 1874, when he came to Piatt County and bought 80 acres in Cerro Gordp Twsp. This he operated for 14 years and then sold that farm and bought 160 acres of land4½ miles south of Milmine. He lived here until Nov. 10, 1913 when he retired to live in LaPlace in the residence now owned by Al Roper.

While living in St. Clair County, Mo. Mr. Mussulman was married March 17, 1870 to Susan Cripe, born in Carroll County, Ind. on December 31, 1851, a daughter of Christian and Catherine (Replogle) Cripe, born near Dayton, Ohio.

HISTORY OF PIATT COUNTY
FRANCIS M. SHONKWILER

Jerry Shively
Jan 1983

MUSSULMAN, DAVID, now living retired at La Place, was for a number of years one of the liading farmer of this section and is still a heavy landowner of Piatt County. He was born in Tippecanoe County, Ind., Jan. 15, 1846, a son of George Washington and Esther (Waggoner) Mussulman, native of Shenandoah Cty., Va., and the vicinity of Dayton, Ohio. Ther parents were married in Ohio, but lived in Indiana until 1850 when they crossed the plains with teams to Calif. where the father died nine mo. after their arrival. Mrs. Mussulman lived in Ind. until 1867, when she moved to St. Clair Cty., Mr., and there was married (second) to Aaron Ulrey, a farmer.

While living in Ind. David Mussulman attended a back woods school where he was grounded in the rudiments of learning. He is the only survivor of four children born to his parents. When his mother moved to St. Clair Cty., Mo., he accompanied her, and resided there until 1874, when he came to Piatt Cty., and bought eighty acres in Cerro Gordo Township. This he operated for fourteen years, and then sold this farm and bought 160 acres of land four and one-half miles south of Milmine, that was partly improved, and had a shanty standing upon it. There was also an orchar and other improvements, but Mr. Mussulman has erected all the present buildings, fenced the field, put in tilling, and made the place thoroughty modern in every respect. Here he lived until Nov. 10, 1913, when he rented his farm, and retired to La Place. Here he owns his handsome residence and seven city lots, and he and his wife are enjoying a well earned leisure.

While living in St. Clair Cty., Mo., Mr. Mussulman was married, March 17, 1870 to Susan Cripe, born in Carroll Cty., Ind., Dec. 31, 1851, a daughter of Christian and Catherine (Replogle) Cripe, born near Dayton, Ohio. Mr & Mrs. Mussulman became the parents of the following children: Dora, who is Mrs. John L. Shively of La Place, Ill.; Luther, who lives at Eagle Grove, Ia.; Ernest C., who also lives at Eagle Grove, Ia.; Anna, who is Mrs. Samuel Shively of Cerro Gordo Township; Grace, who is Mrs. George Benjamin Arnold of Cerro Gordo Township; and Chester W., who is running his father's farm.

The Church of the Brethren holds Mr. Mussulmans's membership, and he has been one of the deacons for many years. In politics he is a Democrat, and while living in Cerro Gordo Township he served on the school board, was road commissioner and held other township offices, his neighbors placing trust in him and his ability to discharge the duties of public office as shown by his repeated return to them.

Noah Ulrey

Barb - Jan 1982

Noah Ulrey, 91, retired farmer of the Pyrmont community died Monday morning at the Curch of the Brethren home, in Mexico, Ind. He was born in Tippecanoe County, Dec. 24, 1847, and except for eight years in Missouri, spent all his life in Tippecanoe and Carroll counties. He had been a member of the Church of the Brethren since boyhood. Jan. 19, 1869, he was married to Barbara Felix, who died eight years ago.

Following children survive: David, of Lebanon; Mrs. D.E. Stong, and Mrs. Phillip Lehman, Lafayette; Mrs. J.E. Flora, of Mulberry, and Owen E. of Pyrmont, with a foster daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Metzger, Pyrmont.

Mr. Ulrey was among the oldest native sons of Tippecanoe County. Plans were made to take the body to Delphi.

I found this in an old scrapbook at our TIPCOA - article dated 16 Jan 1939.

Here is Noah's family as I have found it. Have been working on descendants.

William Henry Crockett was the second son of William Perry Crockett and Mary Ann Standley. He served in the Civil War in the 46th and 128th Indiana Infantry with the rank of Second Lieutenant. He was a scout for General George Armstrong Custer and was near the site of the Battle of the Little Big Horn when Custer and his men were massacred. He left a widow, Elizabeth Musselman Crockett, and five young children when he died in 1894. These children were Jesse Emmet, William Perry, Moses Everett, Mary Ethel, and Maude Mabel Crockett. William Henry Crockett first married Arminta Susan George Betts with whom he had a son Joseph Burton Crockett.

Jesse Emmet Crockett was born December 7, 1879 and was the son of William Henry Crockett and Elizabeth Musselman. Recorded in the Civil War Pension File of William Henry Crockett. He married Dora Jackson on March 5, 1912. Recorded in the Calcasieu Parish, LA courthouse. Jesse died April 27, 1943 as recorded in the Webster Parish, LA death record. Dora Jackson was born April 8th, 1894. Dora died January 18, 1974 as recorded in the Webster Parish, LA death record.

Jesse Emmet Crockett was a member of the Chartered Institute of American Inventors. His certificate reads "This certifies that Mr. Jesse Crockett has duly qualified for membership in the Chartered Institute of American Inventors, Washington, D.C., through devising one of more meritorious inventions, or by rendering other valuable service in behalf of inventive progress, and has been admitted as a Life member of the said Institute on the day herein below written. June 22, 1936."

My grandfather, Jesse Crockett, invented a machine similar to the much later invented Ditch Witch. This was an important machine used in the oil field industry. Jesse also invented many other devices such as a Jack and a Grasshopper which helped improve the quality of productivity in the oil fields. The Jack held the pipes so the men could weld them and the Grasshopper (U.S. Patent # 1,985,152) allowed the men to align the pipes to be welded. Jesse had another patent (U.S. Patent # 1,486,125) for a machine that united pipe sections.
The Ditch Witch type machine dug the ditches for the pipes. My grandfather never made any money from his inventions as they were the intellectual property of the oil company he worked for at the time. He should have been a millionaire many times over for his inventions.

Jesse Crockett could play any musical instrument. He never had a music lesson in his life, but he could play many instruments and play them well. He met my grandmother, Dora Jackson, at a dance in Toomey, LA where he was playing the fiddle in a band.

09 May 1947 (Monte Vista Journal)
FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FRIDAY FOR J.W. MUSSELMAN
Funeral Services were conducted Friday afternoon, May 2, from the Woods Chapel for Jacob W. Musselman of Center, who died Wednesday April 30, in the Monte Vista community hospital after an illness of several months.
The Rev. Edwin C. Knowles, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiated at the service and burial took place in the Monte Vista Cemetery. Music was furnished by Mrs. Edwin Knowles, vocalist, and Mrs. Byron Myers, pianist. Pallbearers included J.C. Kincannon, Don Burd, Lester Mountfort, H.L. Popejoy, Harry Pryor of Saguache and Ross Pryor of Saguache.
Mr. Musselman was born April 3, 1866 in Ozawkie, Kansas. From his native state, he moved to the San Luis Valley in January 1909 and homesteaded sixteen miles north of Center where he had made his home since.
He was one of five children, all deceased and was a bachelor. His survivors include Mrs. Carl Henderson of Monte Vista, grandniece and Howard Singles of Pueblo, grandnephew and Harvey Musselman of Eads, nephew.

OBITUARY

Noah Edward Musselman was born on a farm near Meriden, Kan., January 25, 1868, and died at St. Francis hospital, January 3, 1921, age 52 years, eleven months and 22 days. He was married to Dora Moon of Fayetteville, Arkansas, May 22, 1891. To this union were born four children, three of whom are living, one dying in infancy. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Mable Cunningham and Gladys, and one son, Walker; four grandchildren; two brothers, Jacob Musselman of Center, Colo., and John of Eads, Colo., and one sister, Esther Singles of Dove Creek, Colo., and a host of friends. Mr. Musselman was converted and united with the Dunkard church at Ozawkie about 22 years ago. He was a loving husband, a kind father and a good neighbor to all. He will be greatly missed by all who know him. The deepest sympathy of the entire community is extended to this bereaved family in this hour of sorrow.

CARD OF THANKS

In this way we want to thank all who so kindly helped and sympathized with us in our recent affliction.

CHILDREN.

HEARD ON THE STREET

"Our restaurant was sure busy the day of the funeral.—Henry Lunn.

"The simplest way out of the telephone controversy is for the patrons to buy the local system outright—we're for it."—W. H. Stanley.

"Elder Haney is sure on to that 'afflictions' business."—Dean L. Gay.

"Leave me alone and pay me what you owe me, is my slogan these days."

of this sort to

valley here within a year.

C. H. Peebler, who ninety days ago purchased the building at 909 North Kansas Avenue., has entirely refinished it inside and has been doing considerable business during the period of getting ready for business. The new arrangements reveal an office fifteen by twenty feet, luxuriously furnished with rugs and heavy upholstered furniture. Back of this is a modern chapel twenty by fifty feet, flanked by three side rooms suitably equipped. In the rear is a work room, with elevator to the casket room on the second floor.

A good six-room apartment has been fitted up as a residence in the front of the second story. Duplicate telephone equipment assures some one at the end of the phone all the time. day and night. In fact a twenty-four-hour-modern-undertaking-service is the slogan of the new institution. Several weeks ago Mr. Peebler had delivered to him a big motor hearse, and a new ambulance, now in transit, will complete the motor equipment.

Mr. Peebler was for many years in the undertaking and furniture business at Oskaloosa, Meriden and Perry in Jefferson county to the east. He sold that business to devote his entire energy to the undertaking and embalming business and selected North Topeka as the best location in sight for his expansion.

THE METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday services. Sunday school 10 a. m.; King Heralds, 3 p. m.; Epworth League 7 p. m.; preaching 7:45 p. m.

Prayer meeting every Thursday night.

There were eighty-nine at Sunday school last Sunday, who not make it a hundred next Sunday.

The Epworth League Watch Night meeting was a splendid success. A most enjoyable time was had by all present. Many interesting games

Henry Heastand, father of #142-Peter Hiestant

HEASTAND

Henry Heastand/Heston/Hastings purchased 205 acres from Philip Long on 21 September 1743[150] and received a Fairfax grant for 264 acres (the 205 acres were included within the 264 acres) on 2 August 1762.[151] (Tract 111C, Map 14) This tract, part of Stover's 5,000-acre patent land, was located west of Luray Caverns. Page County Highway 647/645 north of U.S. Highway 211 provides access to the property.

In 1756, Henry purchased 400 acres located on Passage Creek in Powells Fort (Fort Valley, Virginia) from Peter Tear who had purchased the tract from Gervas Daugherty of Stafford County, Virginia.[152] He received a Fairfax grant for the 400-acre tract on 3 June 1778.[153] His son Abraham Heastand purchased 300 acres adjacent to this 400-acre tract from David Clem on 5 October 1763[154] and received a Fairfax grant for the 300-acre tract dated 26 March 1777.[155] These two tracts were located above Massanutten Path (probably present-day County Highway 675) in the south end of Fort Valley.

On 24 March 1777 (two days after writing his will), Henry sold his two tracts on the South River Shenandoah to his sons John Heastand and Peter Heastand. John purchased 232 acres (part of the 264-acre Fairfax grant land) for 100 pounds and Peter purchased the remainder of the Fairfax grant land plus the 205-acre Stover land for 100 pounds.[156]

Henry Heastand (b. 1710 c.) was deceased by 28 August 1783 when his will (dated 22 March 1777) was proved in Shenandoah County Court. He listed five sons, naming only two: Jacob (the eldest) and Daniel; daughters: Barbara (the eldest), Magdalene (the youngest) and another daughter unnamed.[157]

Henry and his son Jacob affirmed in a 27 February 1773 affidavit that Henry was the father-in-law of Chrisley (Christian) Harness, son of Chrisley Harness, deceased.[158] Christian Harness and his wife Mary (perhaps the unnamed daughter in Henry's will) sold 303 acres near the Heastand land on the South River Shenandoah to Joseph Strickler on 27 May 1777.[159]

John Heastand and his wife Elizabeth sold the 232-acre tract (purchased from his father) and 220 acres (purchased from James and Elizabeth Campbell on 23 June 1777) to Edwin Young for 500 pounds on 26 May 1783.[160]

Abram (Abraham) Heastand and his wife Molley sold the 300-acre Fairfax grant land located in Fort Valley to James Breeding for 115 pounds on 22 August 1783.[161]

X Jacob Heastand was deceased by 1795 when the Shenandoah County Court appointed Abraham Heastand as administrator of his estate.[162]

#142 Peter Heastand was deceased by 9 March 1812 when his will (dated 30 December 1811) was proved in Shenandoah County Court. He listed his oldest daughter Elizabeth Ruffner (a widow); daughters Mary Huffman and Barbara Judd, wife of Person Judd. He bequeathed the 230 acres (purchased from his father in 1777) to his daughter Anna, wife of Michael Bixler. Peter appointed his son Peter Heastand and Daniel Strickler to serve as executors. In a codicil to his will, he bequeathed one horse, one cow and two sheep to his wife Barbara.[163]

COFFMAN

Martin Coffman/Kaufman (b. 1705 c.) of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania purchased three tracts on the South River Shenandoah from Ludwick Stone for 200 pounds on 23 February 1736/37. One tract contained 217 acres (Tract 111F2, Map 14), the second tract contained 300 acres (Tract 111D, Map 14) and the third tract contained 100 acres (Tract 111N2, Map 14)[164] Martin sold the 217-acre tract (111F2) to Mathias Selser for 30 pounds on 23 May 1739.[165] The 100-acre tract (111N2) was located on the west side of the South River Shenandoah on present-day Page County Highway 675 about three miles northwest of Luray. The Bixler Bridge (Highway 675) sets on the easternmost part of the 100-acre tract. The 300-acre tract (111D) was located on the east side of the South River Shenandoah on present-day U.S. Highway 211 with the north corner of the tract at the mouth of Mill Creek. Page County

A WORD FROM THE STAFF

The summer has come and gone, the Library has been busy with many visitors doing family research. Both Debbi and I hope your trip to the Shenandoah Valley was both enjoyable and rewarding. We have enjoyed all the correspondence we have received this summer but again we must note that due to our limited staff many queries are slow being answered and always remember to be as brief as you can in your request and always enclose a self addressed, stamped envelope. This will help speed up the process of getting your queries answered.

We would appreciate hearing from you as to your success in researching the Page County, Va. area. If anyone would like to submit articles for the newsletter please feel free to do so.

Our next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, November 17, 1993 at 1:00 P.M. at the Page Public Library. This meeting has been moved back one week due to the fact that the last Wednesday in November is the day before Thanksgiving. Hope to see you there!

Happy Thanksgiving,

Henry (Heinrich) Hiestand was the progenitor of the Hiestand/Heiston Family of the Page County area. Evidence suggest the family was of Swiss origin, but apparently moved to southern Germany because of religious persecutions before coming to America, first living in Pennsylvania and finally settling in the Shenandoah Valley. Henry Hiestand was a Mennonite (Anabaptist). Later the Hiestands, as many other early Mennonite families of the area, were converted by other religious sects, mainly the Primitive Baptist. It has been difficult to trace the family with any certainty back beyond Henry.

Henry Hiestand was born about 1710, married around 1732 and died October 5, 1779. Shenandoah (now Page) County. His unnamed wife died January 12, 1777. He first appeared in Virginia records when he purchased land in Orange (now Page) County on September 21, 1743. His children were Barbara, born c 1734, married Christian Harnish; Jacob, born c 1732, drowned in 1795 in South Shenandoah River, married Maria Elizabeth Brumback, who moved with her family to Fairfield County, Ohio, after Jacob's death; Peter, Sr.., born February 18, 1738, died February 10, 1812, given name of wife was Barbara, supported the American cause in the Revolutionary War; Abraham, born c 1740, married first Magdalene Boehm and secondly Elizabeth ----, moved first to Washington County, Tennessee, and later to Green and Barren (now Monroe) Counties, Kentucky; Ann, born October 15, 1742, died August 19, 1820, married Joseph Ruffner, settled in Kanawaha County, (West) Virginia; John, born c 1746, wife's given name was Elizabeth; Daniel, born c 1750, married Christina Nave; and Mary Magdalene, born c 1752, married Andrew Gimlin, moved to Kentucky and lived in Lincoln (now Garrand) and Cumberland Counties.

The descendants of Peter Hiestand, Sr. changed the family name to Heiston. Peter's children were Peter, Jr., married Barbara Huffman; Elizabeth, married Benjamin Ruffner; Mary, married Andrew Huffman; Anna, married Michael Bixler; Barbara, married Pierson Judd.

Peter Heiston, Jr. is the antecendent of most of the Heistons currently living in the Shenandoah Valley. Peter Jr., purchased 250 acres on Dry Run, Page County, east of present Beth Eden Lutheran Church, from John Moyers of

Peter Hiessandt, Sr.'s (son of Heinrich Hiestand) Bible record states:
(originally written in the old German script)

"Year 1777 the 12th of January my mother left this world for eternity." (three months before this will was created)
"Year 1779 the 5th day of October my father left this world and his age was 73 and 11 months and 27 days." (about two and one-half years after this will was created)

Source: From a set of "Bible Records for Heiston (Hiestand, Hiessandt) Family of Page County, Virginia" obtained from Joseph W. Baker of Saint Louis, MO. Mr. Baker received them "years ago" from Mrs. Samuel (Eva) Winkler who lived at that time on what is now Dry Run Road in Luray (Page County), VA. Mr. & Mrs. Winkler are now deceased.

In the Name of God Amen. I Heinrich Hiestand residing in Dunmore County in the Province of Virginia do this twenty second day of March in the year of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ one thousand seven hundred and seventy seven. Make known and declare this my Last Will and Testament in good health and perfect understanding and memory. Thanks be to God for this beneficence. This my Last Will and Testament I make in the following manner and form. To wit firstly it is my will and I ordain that first of all my burial costs and all lawful debts shall be paid from my estates.

Item it is my will and confession and ordaining that my eldest son Jacob shall have five pounds beforehand afterwards though shall receive equal inheritance with all my other children and no more.

Item it is my will and ordaining that my son Jacob inherit my place, where I now should still reside, for [one] hundred and eighty pounds of money as it is current in Virginia after my demise.

Item it is my will and ordaining what of my following property or money and is still remaining of both that everything shall be equally and amiably shared after my death.

Item it is my will and ordaining that my five sons after my decease shall give out to my three daughters until they are all equal inheritance, however I ordain and it is my will that my youngest daughter Magdalena shall have ten pounds less in her inheritance than the other children because of a reason which I now do not like to mention, and likewise my son Daniel shall likewise have ten pounds less inheritance than the six remaining because of the same reason which I now do not like to mention. (emphasis added by Heritage of Daniel Haston webmaster)

It is interesting to know that the two of his children that Henrich seems to have reprimanded in the above paragraph of his will, Daniel and Magdalena, had been married for about three and one-half years at the time of this will and that their marriages occurred just a few weeks apart.
Daniel Histand to Christina Nave - September 28, 1773
In addition to the "ten pounds less" reprimand stated in his father's will,

Daniel also did not receive any land inheritance from his father.

Andrew Gimling (or "Kemling") to Magdalene Histand - December 5, 1773
Note: Andrew Gimling was one of the witnesses for this will (see below). Apparently, Heinrich's issue with Magdalena was not her marriage to Andrew Gimling, since Andrew was chosen to be a witness to Heinrich's will.

Source: Pages 117 & 307 of Shenandoah County Marriage Bonds, 1772-1850 by John Vogt & T. William Kethley, Jr. (Athens, GA: Iberian Publishing Company, 1984).

Item it is my will and ordaining that my eldest daughter Barbara shall have nothing of this inheritance so long as she lives with this man in wedlock but when she will be a widow so she shall have her share what comes to her by right like the six above mentioned children, but if she should die before her husband so her children shall have her inheritance instead as they come of age further I declare what my daughter Barbara has received from her inheritance from me which amounts to forty pounds and twelve shillings, herewith I ordain and shall be faithfully carried out that after my demise ten shillings from my estate shall be distributed to the poor.

So this is my Last Will and Testament that all of this shall be firmly and (unbalanced?) kept what I in this my Last Will order: In Witness I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year as is written above.

Jacob Hiestand was born about 1736 in Penn. and lived in Page County, Va, as early as 1743. About 1758, he married Maria Elizabeth Brumback, who was born Sept 6, 1736, at Mussen, Germany, the daughter of John Brumback and Anna Juliana Kemper. In Aug, 1783, he sold James Breeding the land inherited from his father. Jacob Hiestand was drowned in 1795 when his canoe overturned in the Shenandoah River, Virginia. In 1798, his widow and children sold part of their lands to her son John Hiestand, and to John Strickler, Jr. On Oct 13, 1804, they settled Jacob's estate and moved to Fairfield Co, Ohio.

Jacob married Maria Elizabeth BROMBACH about 1758. Maria was born on 6 Sep 1736 in Mussen, Nassau-Siegen, Prussia and died in 1813 in Fairfield Co, OH, at age 77. Another name for Maria was Brumback.

----------- SOME MATERIAL FOUND IN THE GSPC PAMPHLET FILE ----------- RUFFNER FAMILY BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

The following material has been abstracted from a pamphlet which was published announcing the Ruffner Family Reunion, which celebrated the Bicentennial of the arrival of the Joseph and Ann (Heistand) Ruffner Family in the Kanawha River Valley of West Virginia. The Reunion was held in Charleston, West Virginia on June 3rd and 4th 1995.

PETER RUFFNER COMES TO AMERICA --- The story of the Ruffner Family in America has its roots in the emigration of so many Europeans to America in the early days of the Eighteenth Century when economic and religious conditions were driving many a young person to seek their freedom and fortune in the West. Nineteen year old Peter Ruffner arrived in Philadelphia with his sister, Mary, in 1732. Speaking "High Dutch" the 6'3" tall young adventurer who came from the German Region of Switzerland, soon moved to the German speaking settlement of Lancaster, Pennsylvania. He lived there seven years before taking a bride, the twenty-five year old Mary, daughter of Joseph Steinman. In that same year, 1739, the couple emigrated to the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia to live on a land patent given as a wedding present by her father. There on the Hawksbill Creek at the Big Spring they built their log home where their children became the first generation of Ruffners born in America. That area, now known as Luray, Page County, Va. was the first home of their eight children; Joseph, Benjamin, Catherine, Peter,Jr., Reuben, Tobias, Elizabeth, and Emanuel.

Peter, the father, died in 1778 and Mary in 1798. Little Catherine had died as a child and Tobias at the age of fifteen. They were all buried on the old Ruffner homestead. The industrious farmer, Peter, had planted in his children the success that comes from hard labor, a mark that those children would take with them as they in turn would begin the trek into the Northwest Territory and beyond. At the age of forty-one, Reuben was the first to leave The Shenandoah Valley taking his wife Catherine and children to Kentucky before 1789. At the age of fifty-five, Joseph took his wife Ann and their children into the Kanawha Valley in 1795. Emanuel, at the age of forty-six moved to Fairfield County, Ohio in 1803, along with his wife and their children. Benjamin and Peter, Jr. chose to stay on the old homestead. Daughter, Elizabeth, married Jacob Stover and moved to Strasburg, Virginia.

It would be the third and fourth generations that continued the move westward, as they too opened up new territory, planting their farms and commercial industry throughout Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois, Michigan, Colorado, and Arizona. Today there are descendants of Peter and Mary Ruffner in all fifty states of the Union, a Union whose split in 1860 tested the resolve of the Ruffner political loyalties between brothers and sisters who like so many families at the time, chose to serve on opposing sides in that great conflict, The Civil War. In all stages of our Nation's History and in all issues defining those stages, Ruffners were there. Peter, the father, was sixty-two when the American Revolution began, and his support for that effort was carried on by his sons who began a long line of military service to the United States. A fine record of those Ruffner men and women who have served in the military is to be found in the family history published by Olive and Doris Ruffner. Their chronicle of the Ruffner Family well documents the many generations who have become successful across the country in Public Service, Education, the Law, Religion, and Commercial Trade. The legacy of Peter and Mary Ruffner lives on in the descendants.

Note the references to James McCalister here and to a "James M. Calistere" in a difficult to read signature in the writeup of Gasper Gander (Ga) in chapter 5. An excellent reference book for information on many other families mentioned in the George Gander (Ge) lineage is John W. Wayland's, A History of Shenandoah County, Virginia [43]. Gene Cordry's book [283] also discusses the genealogies of the families of many Gander spouses in greater detail than is presented in this book of Ganders. Virginia Belle Gander's typed paper [55] gives additional facts on née Gander families. These sources, and many others, commonly presented conflicting names, dates, and places. Where the correct facts could not be determined, more than one is given and the sources are cited, for the most part.

Children [101 & 166]; all or most probably born in Shenandoah Co. (now Page Co.), Va.; marriage dates are those written on marriage bonds; the actual wedding may have taken place several days later:

(Ge)1 BARBARA GANDER, est. b.c. 1787; m. (1) 22 Aug. 1805, Shenandoah Co., Henry Comer. She m. (2) 9 Dec. 1811, Michael Boraker.

(Ge)2 ELIZABETH GANDER, est. b.c. 1792; m. 7 Sept. 1812, Henry Strickler. One day earlier, her father made his "X" mark on a note that reads: "Sir Please grant Mr. Henry Strickler a license to marry my daughter Elizabeth and oblige yours etc." Both the bond and the note were signed by Abraham Strickler. More information on the Strickler history and genealogy is in sources 43 and 388.

(Ge)3 FRANKA "Franey" GANDER, est. b.c. 1793; m. 19 June 1812, Shenandoah Co., John Judd. He was the son of Michael Judd according to source 283. A William Judd was the next door neighbor of Franka's step-mother, Anne Gander, in the 1820 census. See William Judd in the following writeup of sister Nancy [(Ge)4]. Joshua Sumer also signed the bond and, on 18 June 1812, appeared before justice of the peace J. Evans and testified that Franka "is upwards of twenty-one years of age" [101]. One source stated that the "unintelligible Christian name" of Franey is another (Germanic) name for Veronica.

(Ge)4 NANCY ANNE GANDER, est. b.c. 1794; d. before 1820; m. 11 May 1811, Shenandoah Co., William Judd, who was probably related to the husband of Nancy's sister Franka. On 10 May 1811, George Gander (Ge) made his "X" mark on a note that reads: "Sir Please to grant Mr. William Judd license to marry my daughter Nancy and you will oblige yours etc." A Jacob Steep made his mark on both this note and the bond. The following reference, quoted verbatim from an article concerning residents of Ohio who migrated to Adams Co., Ind. [395], raises some questions: "JUDD, JOHN b in Page md 1811 ? Co., Va. in 1805 and went with parents to Stark Co., O. at age of 10 years. He was son of Wm. b. in Va. & Nancy (Gander) b. in Pa., md. in Va. who had 10 ch. Wm served in War of 1812. Wm md 2nd Nancy Welch and had 9 ch. John md Anna M. Double b in Pa. in 1816, dau. of Jacob & Winfred (Masters) Double who had 9 ch. Jacob from Pa., to Stark Co.,O. and then to Ind. in 1841. Winifred b in England. Judds were English."

+ (Ge)5 HENRY GANDER, b. 2 June [55], 5 June [283], or 5 July [45], 1806.

(Ge)6 JOHN GANDER, b. 26 Apr. 1815 [359]; d. in 1834 [55]; unmarried.

SECOND GENERATION

(Ge)5 HENRY GANDER, son of George and Anne Gander, was born 2 June [55], 5 June [283], or 5 July [45] 1806 "on the Big Hawksbill" [438] in Shenandoah Co. (now Page Co.), Va., and died 20 May 1892 [55]. He is buried with
